City faces legal action on area plan

The City of St. Albert is headed for another lawsuit regarding steps taken which may not conform to the General Plan, and the Provincial Planning Act.

Council has been advised that owners of a 50-acre parcel bounded by Hebert Road and St. Albert Trail, have filed a claim of improper procedures taken by the city in formulating an area structure plan for the Akinsdale South area.

The matter came to light during a public hearing held Monday night at city council when lawyer Jim Redmond, represented owners Joe Shekter and Inland Gravel.

Lawyer Redmond felt it would be "most reasonable to adjourn the public hearing - and we will try to bring the claim into court as soon as possible - but in the meantime let's talk it over." Administrator Byron intervened to say that "while the Area Structure Plan is before the hearing now, the staff recommendation is that after the hearing and comments, the plan can be referred back."

City lawyer Stan Brown told council that in addition to the Statement of Claim action, the landowners had tried to get an interim injunction against the hearing tonight, but that the judge ruled against the injunction and therefore council is entitled to proceed with the hearing.

Mr. Redmond said the claim filed by the landowners states that the land use in the Area Structure Plan is not presently provided for in the city's General Plan, and that first it must be established that the area is ready for a Structure Plan. (Legislation governing these matters comes under the Provincial Planning Act).

Alderman Thronsdon moved to proceed with the hearing, and the city's lawyer said "this is not a forum for debate. I have been involved in discussions, he said and legal action is not the way to resolve them."

The hearing was adjourned and council later voted to

Discussion at the normally staid Catholic School Board meetings heated up Monday as one board member took issue with administrative handling of an issue concerning ECS French Immersion fees.

Trustee Jerry Manegre asked District Superintendent Bill Zielinski if he intended to report to the board on a Parent Advisory meeting both had attended the previous Thursday. Dr. Zielinski replied that he hadn't planned to, and that he would wait for the 1979-80 French Immersion ECS committee to express any concerns they may have.

A resolution at that meeting had called for a district accounting of transportation fees assessed pupils for the current school year. The group had learned that the board received a transportation grant later that year from the province for transporting those same pupils. A letter to the board was hand delivered to District office today according to Past President Kathaleen Rowlands. The letter officially puts the committee's request before the board.

Mr. Manegre also asked the superintendent his opinion of the 1978-79 committee's charge that consultation was not taking place between central office and the committee.

Elzinga's bill calls for return of capital punishment

The death penalty will return to Canada's law books if MP Peter Elzinga has his way.

Mr. Elzinga is working to produce a private member's bill asking for the re-introduction of capital punishment.

The Progressive Conservative MP for Pembina says he's acting on Prime Minister Joe Clark's promise that he'll allow private member's bills to come to a free vote in the House of Commons.

Mr. Elzinga is convinced that a free vote on capital punishment will lead to the death penalty again. A similar bill by Elzinga was debated but never acted upon.

Mr. Elzinga's says he's confident that the new prime minister will allow private member's bills - even those he opposes - to come to a free vote in the House.

"I'm not worried that Clark is a determined opponent of the death penalty," he said. "I don't think he would force his cabinet ministers or his party generally to support something they didn't believe in or vote against something they did. He has too much respect for Parliament to do that."

PETER ELZINGA, M.P.

Under former Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, all cabinet ministers were warned that their political futures would be at stake if they didn't vote with the government in its opposition to capital punishment.

Rodeo 118 Queen

15 year old Susan Beattie was crowned Rodeo Queen Saturday. Susan invites everyone to come out and enjoy themselves at the Kinsmen Rainmaker Rodeo on all weekend. The Midway opens Friday and things kick off Saturday morning with Lions Breakfast in Lions Park. The Chamber of Commerce Parade follows at 11 AM.

South, with Aldermen Bakker and Ayotte opposed.

Both rejected the plan because the only access road into the commercial sector will be a dead-end road, extending south from Hebert Road at the intersection of Sunset Blvd. and parallel to St. Albert Trail.

"I feel we are making a big mistake when we put a dead end into this," said Ald. Ayotte. "Either take it out or make the road go somewhere. Having it go nowhere is commercial suicide," he said, adding that the road will split the commercial development in half and create innumerable traffic problems in the area.

Mrs. Bakker agreed, noting that since the area is designed for commercial use, more than one entrance and exit will be needed to handle the traffic that will result. "The city's planners," she said, "had better come up with something better."

"At the same time we have to rely on the technical expertise of our staff," said Ald. Shields. The proposed area plan that was before them, he said, was the staff's fourth or fifth attempt. "We can't keep coming back with drafts."

"But they keep coming back with cul-de-sacs," said Ald. Ayotte. "When they come back without one I'll be happy." Ald. Ayotte felt there would be nothing wrong with replacing the dead end road with a service road along St. Albert Trail.

The land owners have been interested in putting in a major shopping centre on this site (which the dead end road would split in half) for many years. "In fact, said Mr. Shecker Tuesday, "our first proposal to St. Albert Council was made back in 1959."

City lawyer Stan Brown told council that it has 15 days to debate its position (with regard to the lawsuit) after the date the claim was filed.

NDP Council to meet here on weekend

The St. Albert NDP Constituency Association will be hosting the June meeting of the Alberta New Democratic Council. It will be held June 16 and 17 in the Catholic Church basement.

The council conducts the affairs of the NDP throughout the year and has representation from all Alberta constituencies.

Mayor Ron Harvey will address opening remarks to kick things off Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. Provincial Leader Grant Nottley will also be in attendance and speak to the meeting. Things will wind up by noon Sunday.

Saturday evening the group plans to join in the spirit of Rainmaker Rodeo with a buffet dinner and dance.

Much of the meeting will be closed to the public as the council discusses future directions of the party in Alberta. Mayor Harvey's address and Mr. Nottley's report at 10:30 are open. Mr. Earl Toane of Gibbons is the St. Albert constituency representative.

Budget/busing meeting tomorrow

Anyone with any beefs regarding the 1979-80 Protestant School District budget or busing plans should be prepared to attend a public meeting tomorrow evening.

The meeting, to be held at Paul Kane High School on Cunningham Road, was called at the request of a group of ratepayers who asked that the board explain supporting rationale for its decisions.

Mill rate increases for ratepayers in the district were 53 percent over last year and bus fares increased to $80. The board explained the tax increase, which brings it to par with the Catholic School District and just below Edmonton Public, as a 'catch-up' budget that was necessary after holding the line on taxes last year.

Busing in the district, according to board policy, is to move toward a "user pay" concept.

The meeting gets underway at 7:30 p.m.

RCMP will have more checks during rodeo weekend

The St. Albert Detachment of the RCMP has advised the Gazette that there will be extra manpower for this weekend's rodeo festivities. A spokesman added there will be several "checkstops" set up around St. Albert.

On a different matter, the RCMP have a suspect in custody in connection with a break and enter at the Grosvenor Park Pool and Teen Centre. Police are also checking into the suspect's possible connection with the breaking of windows at Sir George Simpson School.

The RCMP report a very busy week, but most of the calls and complaints were of the routine nature.

RCMP Blotter

The following persons have appeared in Provincial Court in the past week.

Illegal possession of liquor - Dennis Edmond Hubert of no fixed address, $50 i/d 7 days; Charles MacDougall of no fixed address, $100 i/d 14 days.

Illegal conveyance of liquor - Wendell Martin Schindler of St. Albert, $25 i/d 5 days.

Illegal possession of a narcotic - Dennis Richard Colville of St. Albert, $100 i/d 14 days.

Driving without reasonable consideration for others - Brian James Visscher of no fixed address, $75 i/d 14 days.

Driving with a blood alcohol level over .08 - Raymond Joseph Mulders of St. Albert, $280 i/d 7 days; Alfred Steven Lamoureux of no fixed address, $280 i/d 30 days; Leonard Jacob Gartner of Onoway, $290 i/d 30 days; Gino Scarpelli of Edmonton, $290 i/d 30 days; Robert Theriault of St. Albert, Wayne Small of Edmonton, and Roland Richard Bauer of St. Albert, each fined $300 i/d 30 days.

French Immersion

Dr. Zielinski replied, "I'm not sure that we are speaking to the resolution at this point." Trustee Ken Porter agreed that the matter was really "New Business" and should not be discussed under "Business Arising From The Minutes." (Mr. Manegre had addressed a resolution from the previous meeting which established a program fee for French Immersion ECS pupils).

When "New Business" arose on the agenda, Mr. Manegre went back to the topic of Thursday's Parent Advisory meeting. He asked Dr. Zielinski once again about the lack-of-consultation charge. He reminded the superintendent that he had apologized to committee members for this omission.

Dr. Zielinski replied, "Sometimes you apologize out of courtesy rather than necessity." He said the School Act did not require the board to consult parent committees on financial matters. He also reminded trustees that not all members of the parent committee were District 3 ratepayers and that the board would have difficulty explaining to ratepayers the act of taking direction from non-ratepayers. He added that Deputy Superintendent George Soetaert concurred with his view that committees, such as the one being discussed, should not direct the board in fee setting.

Dr. Zielinski said that a precedent had been set the year previous when no consultation had been entered into.

Mr. Manegre disagreed saying that he attended a meeting as a parent at which a choice of fees for busing was discussed. He said he had difficulty with Dr. Zielinski's rationale of courtesy. He asked if Dr. Zielinski intended to supply the group with an accounting of the transportation fees.

The superintendent replied that he was waiting for a formal request and that he was not in the habit of following the direction of an informal group such as the one in question.

Mr. Manegre asked if the board had an accounting of the fees.

Dr. Zielinski replied yes, we have a possible accounting and at that moment Board Chairman Ann Smith interjected. She said that "This (the discussion) rather bothers me." She said she had children attending various schools in the district and that she as a parent had no more right to request this sort of information from the French Immersion ECS program at Father Jan School than at any other school. "It is just another program," she said.

Mrs. Smith told other board members that the board had competent people setting the fees who knew how they were spending the money and that most parents would agree.

Trustee Manegre disagreed saying that there was a firm agreement by parents attending the Thursday evening meeting that an accounting should be done. He said he did not want to insinuate that anyone walked off with the money. He said that the pupils had been assessed a transportation fee and that if they were not used as such then there should be an accounting.

Trustee Ken Porter was also becoming visibly upset with proceedings. He said that he would like to stop "dilly-dallying in innuendoes" and asked that Mr. Manegre "get to the point." He agreed that Mr. Manegre

'Rainmaker' is western fun for everyone

The first rodeo performance of the St. Albert Kinsmen Rainmaker Rodeo 118 goes Friday evening at 6:30 at the rodeo grounds on Riel Drive.

From then on in, the weekend gets busier and busier, with something for the whole family.

Other rodeo performances are on Saturday at 2 p.m., and on Sunday at 2 p.m.

The Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association Professional Chuckwagons will be here for three shows as well. The first show is after the Friday rodeo performance, the second on Saturday at 7 p.m., with the chuckwagon finals following the final rodeo performance on Sunday. The chuckwagon finals are slated to start at 4:30 p.m.

M.F. Wagner Shows will provide the exciting midway extravaganza, with the doors to the midway opening at 6 p.m. Friday. That night, from midnight to 4 a.m., there will be what is called the "Midnight Kraze". It's four hours of total midway fun, with $5 getting you admission to any ride you wish to take your chance on. For five bucks, you can have a lot of fun in four hours.

On Saturday, the midway opens at noon and closes at midnight, and on Sunday, it opens at noon, and closes at the end of the rodeo finals, which will be in the early part of the evening. From there, Wagner Shows will pack up and head on to the next stop of the western Canadian tour.

The annual pancake breakfast begins at 7 a.m. and runs till 10 a.m. at Lions Park on Saturday. The breakfast is sponsored by the St. Albert Supper Lions, and best of all, it's free!

Beginning at 11 a.m., the rodeo parade, this year sponsored by the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, winds itself from the top of the hill on St. Vital Avenue to Lions Park for dispersal. Over 50 entries will thrill young and old alike.

The annual raft race will start at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The race along the Sturgeon River has always proven to be a funny and competitive event, and the best place to watch it is on the bank of the Sturgeon that borders the north of Lions Park.

The world of local sports hasn't been forgotten, as the St. Albert Rainmaker Invitational Fastball Tournament will take place at the new Meadowview Diamonds. Eight teams, four of them the top four in the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association, will compete for prize money.

And if casino gambling is something you love, don't miss the St. Albert Kinsmen Casino at the St. Albert Inn. It's open Friday and Saturday from 6 p.m. to midnight, and 2 p.m. to midnight on Sunday.

Probably the best thing to do for this weekend is to "shine up your spurs," "don your cowboy hat" and take in everything that's going ... then you can honestly say, "That's the best western wing-ding I've ever been to."

It's Official

City to renew its request for auxiliary hospital

City council agreed at Monday night's meeting to renew their year-old request to the provincial government to have an auxiliary hospital built in St. Albert.

In voting in favour of the official request, Alderman Rod Thronson said the city "must continue to peg away" until the province acts.

Mayor Ron Harvey agreed noting that "we're just getting pushed around with no response." Mr. Harvey said he attended the annual board of directors meetings of the Edmonton and Rural Auxiliary Hospital and Nursing Home District Number

24 last year and, at that time, he spoke for the city's needs. Council also agreed to a motion from Alderman Margaret Smith to approach the government to get a St. Albert representative on the auxiliary hospital board.

was speaking on a matter of personal privilege but felt that his fellow trustee was now out of order. He felt that Mr. Manegre was speaking as a parent and not as a trustee.

Mr. Manegre said he was speaking as a trustee and began to introduce a motion to have the information brought before the board.

Chairman Ann Smith informed him he would have to put his motion in the form of a notice of motion (it would appear on the June 25 agenda).

Trustee Manegre responded, "I think that's unfortunate that you are denying information to the public."

Mrs. Smith asked that he make his notice of motion.

Trustee Don Lavoy joined the fray at this point and told trustees he was "a little bit concerned that we (the board) could be projecting the image that we are trying to conceal." He said he thought the board should make an effort to deal with the matter on the table.

Chairman Smith said that the French Immersion ECS parents were holding a meeting the next day (last night) and that the board might very well be receiving a request. If they do, she said, "the information will be given out."

Mr. Lavoy added that he felt it was important that people realized they could come to the board.

By this time Trustee Manegre appeared to be coming disillusioned. He said that the Central Office administrators had been at the parent meeting and well knew of the request which was coming forward. "We all know what went on," he said. "I think we can do better and I'm disappointed we can't."

He declined to make a notice of motion.

The request from the parent group will likely appear on the board's June 25th agenda.

Motorcyclist killed near St. Albert

An Edmonton man, David Pedrotti, died when he struck a pole after failing to make a turn on a corner northwest of St. Albert.

The incident occurred about 1 a.m. on Saturday, June 9, four miles west and two miles north of St. Albert.

Pedrotti was the lone rider of the northbound motorcycle, and failed to negotiate a "T" intersection. He was wearing a helmet at the time, but the force with which he hit the pole caused fatal head injuries.

EQUAL TREATMENT FOR ALL

It is unfortunate that St. Albert is once again to be involved in a lawsuit with a landowner wishing to develop his property for commercial use.

Aside from the costs and time involved, these legal actions make the city less attractive to would-be developers, when a major objective is to increase the city's commercial and industrial taxation base and provide more in-city jobs.

The current action, by a land owner wishing to develop a large shopping centre on his highway property, is again based on procedures under the General Plan which could be deemed to contravene the Provincial Planning Act. A citizens' action group was recently successful in pressing such a claim. The question therefore arises whether the planners involved in drafting our general plan were sufficiently well grounded in the Alberta legislation and required procedures.

Another question which deserves consideration in the particular case of Shekter versus the City is why this developer has been continually frustrated over many years in his attempt to build a shopping centre. It could have been in place years ago, providing needed shopping services, local jobs and years of taxation revenues.

This site, stretching away from Hebert Road and St. Albert Trail offers many advantages over the Highway 2 north site. It does not require the development of Bellerose Drive as a major arterial road - presently this Drive is using a healthy portion of the current Provincial assistance for arterials in our city. The southern site does not require an expensive bridge over the river, plus foot bridge. From a safety standpoint the Shekter site was preferred by the Provincial Department of Transportation over the north site.

Neither would the Heritage Shopping Centre require widening of the Trail to six or seven lanes from Hebert Road north, plus widening the highway bridge. To achieve this widening 30 feet off the front and 50 feet off the back of four businesses are required: St. Albert Dodge Chrysler, Mohawk, Club Mocombo and the new Touch Inn restaurant. The proposal to take these footages was aired at a recent public meeting on transportation in St. Albert. It could in fact put these firms in serious jeopardy.

Meanwhile the city needs right-of-way from Mr. Shekter to complete two roadways - the widening of Hebert Road to four lanes, and the greatly desired 149th Street - an extension of Campbell Road to serve the industrial park.

In the case of the Highway 2 North site, the city has granted time extensions and bent its own bylaws to get a regional shopping centre located, first for the firm of Abbey Glen and now for Abacus Cities and the Bay. At the same time plans for the Heritage Mall Centre are continually stalled. Is it to protect the regional centre until it finally gets on stream? The Heritage Centre has consistently taken the position that they are quite prepared to build and face the competition. Wouldn't this arrangement serve consumers better?

To drive a go-nowhere roadway through a site planned for a shopping centre (as town planners have proposed for the Heritage Centre) certainly is, as Alderman Ayotte put it, "commercial suicide." Those same planners have proposed a single family/multiple dwelling mix for part of the property. Their proposal would have attractive single family homes overlooking a shopping centre and Jasper Auto Parts. That is good planning?

All development proposals must be treated equally and fairly - and without undue delay. Otherwise reputable businesses will stay clear of St. Albert.

A case might also be made that Alderman Breadner should refrain from voting on this shopping centre, either in MPC or council, in order to protect himself from any possible conflict of interest questions, since his home on Sunnyside Crescent is so close to the proposed Heritage Shopping Centre.

It is in the best interests of council, the developer, the taxpayers and the residents that costly legal action be avoided, and a plan for this shopping centre which is considered viable by the developer and acceptable by city planners be worked out and approved.

VITAL GRANDIN VANDALIZED

The Skeptics Tank

By Vicky Knight

(OTTAWA) -- Civil servants were horrified recently when a fatal accident took place in the office of the ex-Prime Minister. The mishap took place during the evacuation of government offices by departing Liberals. The victim was one Vaingloria Spite, of no fixed address. (Ms. Spite was a member of the Flagrant Party, a radical movement that promises if elected to offer more flagrant action than all the other parties left or right. Whether it's pork barrelling or inflation-fighting, the Flagrants say they will do more of it than anyone else. They vow to consolidate all party policies, thus saving the voter from having to choose between the licentious left and the rigid right.)

The victim had crept into the office of the former PM. to see if she could gain access to any lesser Liberal secrets that might be lying around. She acted hastily, as the Grits were doing away with 16 years of secrets at the rate of a pound a minute. In her zeal, Ms. Spite ventured too close to the hub of the activity. Before anyone could stop her, she had tumbled into the paper shredder with all the Liberal tidbits, meeting the same fate as the files on Lubor Zink; the sales record of the CANDU reactor and the list of contributors to the Prime ministerial pool. She was just so much confetti. A small service was held at the Parliamentary Incinerator. (Any other method of internment was ruled out due to packaging problems).

There you have it. The invincible Vaingloria took the dive, and high time too. She had become quite strident and tedious. The rest of the day's column will be devoted to a list of gripes. For a long time, I've been eager to burden someone with a catalogue of complaints about the tiny things that can make life miserable. Any readers who have some special obsessions are welcome to send in your list of irritants. We'll print any we receive in this space. Who knows, a public recital might exorcise the little devils.

The first part of the list concerns the tube and the inanities it perpetrates.

TV Tackiness I Can Do Without

out looking lady who is trilling away with the bright-eyed wonder of someone who has just experienced a revelation. "And I know that I am me and I know that I'm a woman." Now, this woman is in her 20's. Surely, neither of these facts should be news to her.

- "My husband Harry just loves my full figure." This is uttered in a bra ad by a woman who is straight off a Reubens canvas. Husband Harry responds, making inarticulate grunts which presumably indicate bestial lust. The amply endowed lady then bestows a patronizing smile on Old Harry, as if he were a cretin that had exhibited a flicker of intelligence. Ah, what a tribute to the matrimonial bond and the institutionalized sex that goes with it. One gets the impression Old Harry is led around by the nose, a slave to his wife's over-ripe charms.

- "Oh, no. Junior's taking his first step and here I am in the middle of a greasy mess!" This insipid little missus evidently finds her son's first step small beans compared to her sink-side squalor. It's a contemptible ad that puts down adults and children at the same time.

Things That Make Housewives Old Before Their Time

As all housewives know, the design of most kitchen equipment is inspired by a munchkin with minuscule fingers and an average height of 3' 4". Stoves are diabolically designed with control knobs placed so as to make cleaning them comparable to Hercules' efforts in the Aegean Stables. Plastic plugs are made to fall out of outlets, paring knives are designed with dark handles so they'll be hurled out with the potato peels. Gadgets come with instructions all in German, leaving you to guess as to whether the object in question is a cherry pitter or a chicken plucker.

When it comes to fashion, things are just as irritating.

- Panty hose comes in packages neatly stapled -- right through the product. This is convenient as it saves you the trouble of wearing them before you throw them out.

- Fashions are nostalgia items by the time you get up the nerve to wear them. When you finally get with the layered look from ankle to neck, you find that the stark tailored look is in. Here again design is inspired by non-existent buyers, who are usually 6' 9" and weight 75 pounds. Anyone else emerges looking like little Bo-peep or an ambulatory barrel.

Get the idea? Don't leave me thinking that I'm the only whiner in the crowd. Send in your petty grievances and share your misery. Address all outpourings to The St. Albert and Sturgeon Gazette, P.O. Box 263, St. Albert.

TO THE EDITOR

AMBULANCE STAFF GIVES TLC

I had occasion to call the ambulance service in St. Albert in order to get my husband to the hospital in a hurry.

I was so impressed by the tender care and courtesy shown by the two attendants that I felt compelled to write this letter to the editor. One hears so many complaints about various things going on in town that I thought a word of praise would be nice. I would like to express my sincere thanks to both attendants for the speed on answering my call and for the courtesy shown, it was really outstanding.

IN DEFENCE OF ACOOSTYX

This letter is in response to the recent debate regarding disco vs. rock, and the subsequent correspondence it generated.

Initially, let me say that this is not about disco or rock or any other form of music. This is about journalism. As a subscriber to the Gazette, I certainly get my fill of mundane, run of the mill writing such as put forth by Simon, or the late great Razbo and the rest of that genre. This type of community college journalism is unexciting, unimaginative and sometimes unintelligent. I'll probably get letters now saying how many years each of the above went to University or how informed they are on certain subjects that interest them, but I think my point comes across.

Shauna Oor refreshes me. She writes with flair, enthusiasm and wit. I do not know her personally, but if she sticks at it and is not put off or intimidated in any way by 'mature' writers, then I think this girl is going to make it. One way or another.

I would like to direct this last remark to the friend of Simon's who wrote a letter to The Gazette under the heading of "Acoostyx Challenged." I dare you sir, to come out in the open and put yourself on the line. I dare you to write a comprehensive weekly column about anything, with the charm and exuberance demonstrated by Shauna at just 16 years of age.

PARISH KINDERGARTEN FEES SET UNDEMOCRATICALLY

Re: Parish Kindergarten.

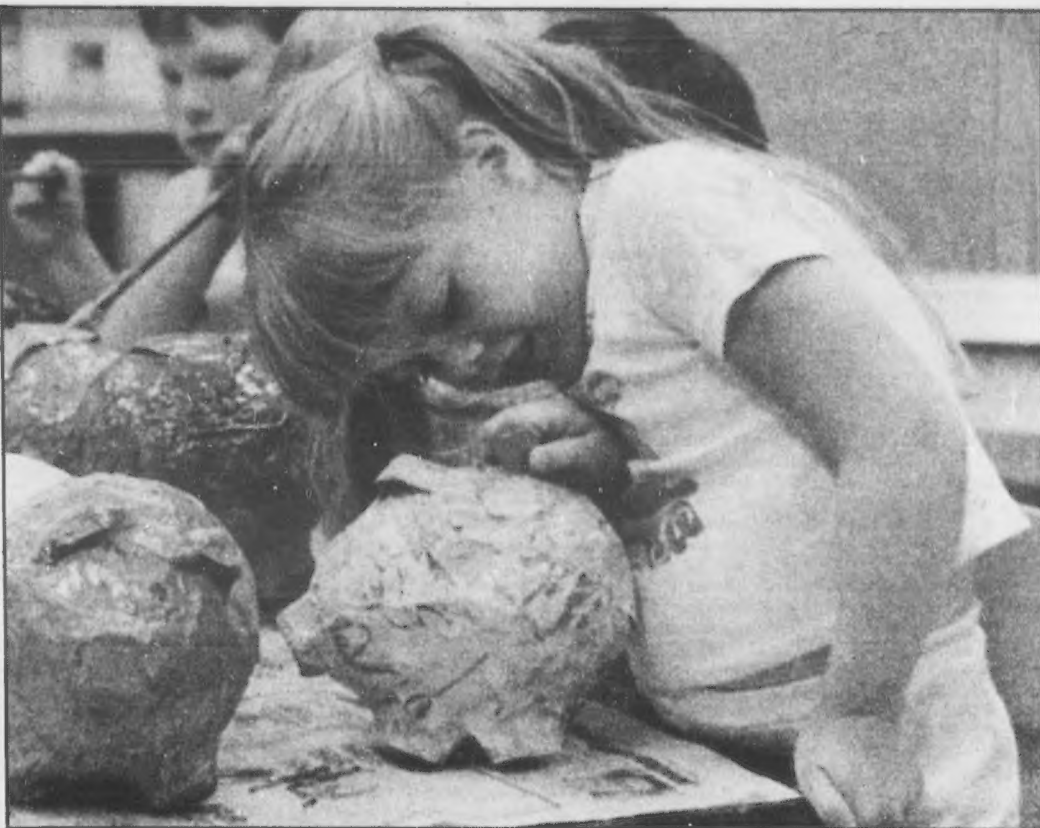

Mrs. Merchant and Mrs. Smith must be naive indeed to feel that a show of hands expressed support for doubled fees! Mr. Davis carried out that vote in a very intimidating fashion. Asking for a show of hands will give you a lot of people with hands up just because you felt shamed into it, not because you believed in it. Democracy in action! A private ballot would show the true sentiment but the manner in which Mr. Davis carried out this vote is not. I heard enough grumbling and mumbling around me and it wasn't "positive affirmation" either!

One lady behind me said, after it was explained to us how an assistant helps the director and staff not have to deal with the mundane duties and leaves them free for more professional work, - "On those grounds, I can ask my husband for a maid so I can be more of a professional mother to my children!" That's about the size of it! In these days of inflation, that is really an extra frill to throw at the parents - a $30 per parent yearly frill. How did Mrs. Kathol manage to do such a terrific job without an assistant?

For Mrs. Merchant and Mrs. Smith to say that parents should be willing to pay no matter what the cost is, is rather a low blow. It's fine for people on high incomes to talk like that but I have to really dig for that $200 for kindergarten.

I can't support the increased fee. I find it a real shame in such a rich province.

BANKING WITH BACON

Youngsters at Wild Rose School kindergarten found that making papier mache piggy banks is a nice idea, especially when mom was kind enough to donate a quarter to see if it will fall through the slot. One problem though . . . they forgot to include an exit for the coins.

Reform would allow spouse to sue spouse

The Institute of Law Research and Reform has issued a report recommending the abolition of the common law rule that neither a husband nor a wife might sue the other for a civil wrong. The report indicates that if inter-spousal tort immunity were abolished, the great proportion of new tort claims will arise from the negligent operation of a motor vehicle. The report therefore makes a number of recommendations for amendments to the Insurance Act in regard to automobile liability insurance.

Inter-spousal tort immunity was based on the theory that marriage caused the legal existence of the wife to be merged into that of the husband. This fictitious unity says the Institute, is now regarded as a relic of the past. The report indicates that the major justification for preserving inter-spousal tort immunity is that its abolition would jeopardize family harmony. However, the Institute believes that the force of this contention is reduced because an exception to the immunity permits a spouse to sue to the other spouse for negligent damage to his or her property. The report expresses the view that the present situation reflects little credit upon the law in that it appears to place more importance on the protection of the property rather than the person of the spouse.

The report notes that the commission of an intentional wrong by one spouse against another is strong evidence that there is no family harmony to be preserved. It also states that in a harmonious family, a spouse would not wish to sue the other spouse for negligently inflicted injury unless the other spouse has insurance. If there is insurance coverage, the granting of the right to a spouse to sue the other spouse in tort will not result in any family disharmony because the negligent spouse would only be a nominal party to such litigation and in no real sense an adversary. Where one spouse is seriously injured by the negligence of the other spouse, tort compensation provided through insurance would probably contribute to family harmony. Tort compensation would permit the family to live a life closer to their former life with fewer potentially disruptive financial problems than if tort recovery were denied.

CHANGES IN INSURANCE ACT

In a report issued at the same time, the Institute recommends the repeal of the guest passenger provision. In this report, the Institute says that it would be illogical for a hitch-hiker to be entitled to recover if the driver were negligent while a spouse-passenger would be unable to do so. In addition to recommending that inter-spousal tort immunity be abolished, the report recommends several amendments to the Insurance Act in order that the abolition of the immunity is not rendered ineffective in the very area, motor vehicle negligence, where it is likely to have the greatest impact. The Institute recommends repeal of the section in the Insurance Act which provides that an insurer is not liable for bodily injury or death of a child or spouse of the insured while a passenger in an automobile. The report states that this section appears to proclaim that bodily injury or death of a spouse or child of any insured person is not a risk that should be shared among the motoring public through insurance. This approach is rejected and the report says that a spouse and children should be entitled to share with all other members of the general public in the protection accorded by compulsory automobile insurance.

Murderers more efficient?

Edmonton Police Chief Robert Lunney's most recent announcement regarding crime statistics makes one ironic point. Crime rates have apparently risen for murder, rape, breaking and entering and woundings. The one crime which shows a decrease is not re-assuring - attempted murder. Obviously, novice murderers are learning the ropes and becoming more efficient. Their increasing success is disturbing.

Nu-West fails in bid to revamp Riel Park's Stage 11

Nu-West Development Corporation failed in an attempt Monday night to impose significant changes in the city's plans for Stage 11 of Riel Industrial Park.

Asking for the changes too late and without any offer to help pay for them were the reasons for council's rejection of Nu-West's requests.

The corporation asked council to redesign its road system within the park, to impose more explicit height restrictions on buildings, to erect six-foot fences along the south and east sides of the development, and to provide additional buffering adjacent to the railway tracks on the east side of the Riel property.

David Thom, an architectural consultant with IBI Consultants Limited, represented Nu-West before council. He told the aldermen that the proposed changes to the industrial development would make it more practical and more attractive. The changes, he said, would be of direct benefit to the developers, Jason Developments, and to Nu-West which owns the residential housing project directly east of the park.

Mr. Thom said he couldn't say if Nu-West was willing to pay for any of the proposed changes but he felt that the company was willing to offer their consulting services to assist the city in their plans.

He said he was aware that Nu-West had never made their suggestions known to council before -- and maybe they should have -- but previously they hadn't considered making any changes outside of their own development. "They themselves have always looked at the problem internally," he said.

Mr. Thom apologized for not knowing about Nu-West's commitments to the proposed changes but said he'd only been recently assigned to the matter.

Mayor Ron Harvey said council should ignore Nu-West's requests. After all, he said, "they couldn't even send their general manager out. They send an architect who doesn't know the case."

"Nu-West has been here for a long time," said Alderman Rod Thronson. The company has known for years that industrial development was planned to the west of their residential property, he said, yet it has never come to council before now. He reminded the aldermen that Nu-West had asked for an earlier public hearing but hadn't arrived in time to state their case.

Aldermen Barry Breadner added that "Nu-West itself hasn't provided a great deal of buffering on its own side." In a later interview Mr. Thom said that Nu-West had expected that Jason Developments would pay for the buffering and fences which Nu-West had proposed.

Jason Developments' general manager, Fred Anderson, told the Gazette Tuesday that Nu-West has never approached his company about any changes to Stage 11 of Riel. He noted that his company's own plans for the project have already been fully approved by city council.

He said that despite Mr. Thom's claims that the proposed changes would help the Riel development, "their attempt to redesign the thing is of no benefit to us that I can see ... The only thing it could be right now is a hindrance."

Woodlands project granted reduces frontage limits

City Council may have established an important precedent Monday night by approving a bylaw which allows reduced frontage on 69 lots in Woodlands.

Council ruled that Carma Developers Limited can sell 24 lots with a minimum frontage width of 50 to 57.9 feet and 45 more lots with a minimum frontage width of 55 to 57.9 feet. The standard lot width is 58 feet.

The approved bylaw also changes portions of the Woodlands area from development control zoning to single family residential, multiple family residential, commercial and institutional.

Third reading of the bylaw didn't pass without opposition. Alderman Margaret Smith made a motion to amend the bylaw so that permission for reduced lot frontages was removed. She said long, narrow lots need innovation in housing design but Carma's plans are the "basic same designs that are being used everywhere else."

Alderman Bill Shields said there was definite pressure to be innovative to give young people the chance to buy houses, but he had found that the smaller lot frontages hadn't reduced costs in similar developments such as Mill Woods.

Alderman Bill Shields said he feared that "we're going to be besieged" with appeals for other lot size changes. There's definite pressure, he said, to be innovative in housing and lot design so that young people are given the best opportunity to buy, but there are also problems in getting the maximum lot space in some form.

Mr. Shields said that he had "checked it out" in similar reduced frontage projects and had found that narrower lots sold for the same price as wider lots, thereby providing no savings to consumers.

No one ever said that narrower lot frontages would save money for the buyers. Alderman Rod Thronson noted. The idea of it, he said, is to provide the maximum amount of land use in a given area.

Alderman Liesbeth Bakker expressed concern that the proposed 149th and 156th Street roadways wouldn't be built in time to serve the new Woodlands development. She said council should consider slowing down development in the area before it became too congested. "The previous council was thrown out for growth for growth's sake -- probably rightly," she said.

Alderman Ayotte disagreed, saying that if the city slows down its residential and industrial growth, road development will soon slow down too. "The provincial government isn't going to put in roads that aren't absolutely necessary," he said.

Catholic District administrators have some difficulty with requests Requests for school facilities by the St. Albert Summer Games Board met with a few reservations Monday at a Catholic school board meeting.

The Games people would like use of several schools in St. Albert including St. Albert High and V.J. Maloney in the Catholic district. Protestant district schools requested are Paul Kane High, Lorne Akins, Sir Alexander Mackenzie and Sir George Simpson.

Camping facilities were requested at St. Albert High and classrooms, showers, lunch room and washroom facilities at V.J. Maloney. Staff rooms in both schools were also requested and this caused some concern among school and central office administrators. They said that opening the staff rooms would give access to each school's office area and thus possible access to some confidential material including student files.

Secretary-treasurer Ted Baldwin, who presented the Board with the Games request, agreed that the possibility of people gaining access to confidential material did exist. He suggested, however, that this 'problem' could probably be worked out.

Other questions centered on the possibility of damage to sports fields by trailers and camper units and the fact that the District did not have the 750 chairs asked for by Games organizers.

Board members agreed that the rider - the school grounds are to be restored to District 3's satisfaction - be attached to any agreement to the camping request. They also will look into expenses involved in putting a plumber on 24 hour stand-by. District maintenance personnel suggested this would be necessary should any problems arise while hundreds of visitors were in need of facilities.

The chair question was straight forward. The District has about 200, or about 550 short of the requested amount, according to Mr. Baldwin. Trustees and administration did not want to commit the District to chairs it couldn't provide and therefore opted to check out all requests completely before making any decision at all.

It was apparent that everyone at the table was in support of co-operating with the Summer Games Board but as the written request has only arrived in the Catholic School Board office that morning everyone concerned agreed it would be wiser to clarify all facets of the requests before the June 25 board meeting. At that time they could, by Board resolution, agree to the requests with the complete information before them.

Volunteers honoured: Help Society reviews year

By Terry Regimbald and Mavis Allard

St. Albert Help Society recently held its annual Dessert Party in honor of volunteers. The evening was held in the St. Albert United Church and the program was chaired by the Society's president, Mrs. Anne Jwasko. Representatives of various organizations throughout the community had been invited to attend.

On behalf of the city, Mayor Ronald Harvey thanked all those who have made important contributions to the community through their efforts. He stated every volunteer was very, very valued by the city.

Main speaker of the evening was MLA Myrna Fyfe. Mrs. Fyfe reminisced about her experiences as first president of the St. Albert Help Society. She described its growth over the past 10 years and its service to the community.

Mrs. Olga Buma, supervisor of the Meals on Wheels program described the function of the program and presented service awards to the volunteers. Receiving a rose for six years of service were: Irene Slater, Kay Wilson, Irma Hill, Peg Humbert, Therese Tailleux, Kay Krupa, Evelyn Blais, Jackie Keith, Blanche Gau, Muriel Stel, Esther Rankin, Ruby Shanley, Cec Sharmon, Susan Van Der Straten and Mabel Bissonnette.

Receiving pins for five years of service were: Alma Bricher, Yvonne Mill, Dulcie Page, Vi Tetreau, Betty Scharfe, Florence Poppitt and Myrtle North. Olga also honored her assistant Mrs. Jenny Allan and former Meals on Wheels Supervisor Mrs. Hettie Blades.

Mrs. Bud Reiniger, supervisor of the Mother's Day Out program explained the program which runs four days a week from the Brae-side Presbyterian Church. Bud thanked all those who have made donations to Mother's Day Out this year enabling the program to expand.

Mrs. Iris Bruce, supervisor of the Homemaker's Service, gave a few words on the operation of the Service. Some enjoyable entertainment was provided by the "Groovy Gang" with a medley of songs. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bertha Kennedy.

The evening wound up with coffee and desserts. The Society wishes to thank all those who attended and help make the evening a success.

Need someone to get those odd jobs done? ... Hire A Student

The St. Albert H.A.S. office has been doing very well since its opening one month ago, due to the great support received from the community. So far 160 students have registered and approximately 60 have been placed in some sort of work on a full-time, part-time or casual basis.

MALES NEEDED

Some job orders are unfilled at the moment. Students can check the job board outside the H.A.S. office in Grandin Mall to see if there are any jobs they are interested in. H.A.S. has a shortage of males between the ages of 16 - 18 that are looking for either a few days or part-time employment.

Any students who are interested in being on the odd-job squad should phone or drop in to the H.A.S. office and let them know.

The odd-job squad fills positions such as babysitting, lawn mowing, painting, garden work and helping out around the house.

If you are a homeowner looking for someone to do a job for you, call Janet Boddez, office manager at 458-3808 between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. weekdays.

The window washing crew is ready for work after school and on weekends. They are charging $20/house.

Any students interested in applying at the H.A.S. office should come down in person between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. on weekdays. Any employers wishing to place a job order, or who would just like information on the H.A.S. program can call Janet at the above number or drop into the office located in Grandin Mall.

Heart Fund reached goal

The Alberta Heart Foundation has revealed that the annual Heart Fund Campaign reached its objective of $1,000,000. The Foundation supports major heart research and education programs in the province. The president and board of directors of the Alberta Heart Foundation express appreciation to the thousands of volunteer canvassers who worked so hard and to all citizens of Alberta for their interest and support.

New manager at B of M

A new manager has arrived to take over the reins at the Bank of Montreal, St. Albert Branch.

Mr. John Ness takes over from Therien Bennett who has gone into the consulting business.

John, 39, his wife Donna and their children Linda, 15, and Trent, 13, will be making their home in the Lacombe Park area after moving from Calgary at the end of the school term.

Mr. Ness held the position of Credit Officer with the Bank's Divisional Credit Department before the transfer. He has been with the Bank of Montreal for 19 years during which time he has managed branches in central Alberta and Calgary. He was born and raised in Edmonton and took his first job with the Bank of Montreal's southside branch.

JOHN NESS

Account Manager Larry Moore, filled in as acting manager following Mr. Bennett's resignation April 30 until Mr. Ness took over June 4.

No sentiment in Father's Day origins

For at least one day out of 365, father is pampered with "King of the Castle" treatment as North Americans celebrate Father's Day. This year, June 17 will find fathers opening greeting cards and gifts and basking in their day of accentuated recognition. And fathers aren't the only recipients of this stepped up warmth and consideration -- shelves of greeting cards of all description remember grandfathers, godfathers, husbands, uncles, fathers-to-be and more!

While many cards carry emotional thanks and expressions of love, the original intent of Father's Day appears to supersede the sentimentality. As described in 1924 by United States President Calvin Coolidge, Father's Day was "to impress upon fathers the full measure of their obligations, and to establish more intimate relations between fathers and their children."

This sobering message is handled in a light and jesting fashion on modern greeting cards. Father is chided, teased and gently harassed. He is playfully reminded of his many family responsibilities and all the ways in which he is cajoled to support (sometimes dubious) family schemes. Even on his special day, amid favorite dinners, gifts and valet service, father is still called upon to be "a good sport."

But if he reads between the lines, as fathers learn to do with expertise, the message is undeniably one of appreciation and affection.

St. Albert youths into 'weed-eating'

No; teenagers in St. Albert haven't adopted some new fad. What some of them have done is begin to test the market to determine the demand for a specialized lawn care service.

And that's where 'weed-eating' comes in. Does a market exist for doing lawn trimming after a homeowner has groomed the easy accessible areas with the lawnmower?

Two St. Albert lads, Dave Lloyd, 21, and his cousin

John Tanchak, 15, are presently out knocking on doors around the city. They hope to find enough residents who would prefer to pay someone $5 a visit to trim, (with a new professional model Weed-Eater) around fences, trees, sidewalks, etc. Dave calculates they need about 80 steady customers to make the business pay. He says one visit every two weeks should be enough but will call every week if the customer desires more frequent service.

Dave has spent four years in the landscaping business including a summer in Toronto providing a similar service to businesses. He plans to offer the service to St. Albert businesses and would even like to appear before city council to ask if it's interested in letting some parks maintenance out to him and his crew of independent student businessmen.

The idea came to Dave while talking to his younger cousin about the lack of opportunity for many students in the labour market. Why not create our own jobs was the answer. They hope that they will be able to create several jobs for students by discovering many more than 80 residents who would like the service. Dave will 'front end' the equipment to the younger boys who then pay him back (with a slight profit) by summer's end when they become rightful owners of the machines.

Dave says he demands quality on his jobs and that any students who contract through him will have this drilled into them. A job well done this year means customers returning next year. "We want to keep everyone happy."

If you are interested in the service give Dave or John a call at 459-3638.

People, prizes and presentations

Block Bros. Realty of St. Albert donated $100 to the St. Albert Association for the Handicapped to be awarded as prize money in the Association's recent logo contest. As mentioned in last week's Gazette the winner of the contest was local resident Otto Mestinek. Branch Manager Gordon McIndoe made the presentation.

$16,000 TO HOSPITAL

The Auxiliary also took time out Monday to turn over $16,000 to the Hospital for the purchase of a Lanier Dictating Console and $506 for a surgical lamp in the Intensive Care Unit. Making the presentation were members of the outgoing executive (from left) Yolande Bourdon (treasurer), Kay Wilson and Marian Kay (vice presidents) and Joan Webber (president). Sturgeon General Purchasing Agent Grant Magwood accepted the monies on behalf of the hospital.

NEW AUXILIARY EXEC.

NEW EXECUTIVE FOR BETA SIGMA PHI

Dorothy Sombach has been elected president of Xi Phi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, an international sorority. There are four chapters in St. Albert.

Serving with her will be Marg Allred and Donna Wyatt, vice-presidents; Dale Mackey, recording secretary; Cheryl Laws, corresponding secretary and Lu Nuckles, treasurer.

Retiring president Karol Heine was presented a gift from the chapter for her work during the past year. Gifts were also presented to Phyllis Hodges, Karen Prior and Mrs. Heine who are leaving the chapter. Tokens of appreciation were presented to members for their work during the past year. Donna Wyatt was named Xi Phi's Girl of the Year for the many contributions she made to the chapter.

This past year, Xi Phi has been active in Meals on Wheels, St. Albert Heart Fund, The Christmas Hamper project, Commonwealth Games and selling programs at Edmonton Eskimo football games. Presentations were made to the St. Albert Paramedic Unit and the Kiwanis Music Festival.

During the summer, members will again be at the football games to raise funds for the John Janzen Nature Centre and the W.W. Cross Cancer Institute. They will also be volunteer workers at the Alberta Summer Games, both the sports events and the cultural activities.

Summer Games will even have Niagara Falls now

City council agreed Monday night that a "grande finale" fireworks display just isn't worth an extra $400.

Alberta Summer Games spectators and participants will just have to settle for the "Niagara Falls Finale."

The aldermen had a choice between two proposals from Len Boscoe, fireworks supervisor for the Games. Proposal number one called for "65 assorted shells, eight special effects displays and the Niagara Falls Finale" at a cost of $1,600. The second proposal called for "77 assorted shells, six large special effects and the Grande Finale" for $2,000.

Alderman Bill Shields apologized to council for presenting the expenditure at this time. "It completely slipped my mind," he said, during recent budget discussions. Council agreed to the second proposal with the stipulation that the Games board will try to find St. Albert businesses or industries who might be willing to sponsor the costs.

Alderman Liesbeth Bakker said she supported the first proposal "not because it's cheaper but because I like a Niagara Falls Finale."

Request for spot zoning change is refused

City council turned down a request from Bourgeois Cameron Real Estate Limited to establish their offices in a residential location.

The company had asked council to change the 16 Muir Drive property from residential to commercial zoning with the hope of buying the house for their offices. The firm's president, Vicky Cameron, told council in her letter of request that Bourgeois Cameron would be making no exterior changes to the house except for additional parking spaces.

In turning down the request, Alderman Rod Thronson said he was "not in favor of spot zoning." Alderman Margaret Smith agreed, adding that "I think if we're going to change we should change for the whole area and I don't think residents are ready for that change."

A motion by Alderman

Liesbeth Bakker to have the whole matter referred to the Municipal Planning Commission failed before council rejected Bourgeois Cameron's request.

Council to create new appeal procedure for day care users

City council agreed Monday night to change its method of granting assistance to parents of children attending St. Albert's day care centres who can't afford the full cost of services.

The aldermen voted to draw up a bylaw which will create a municipal fee subsidization board. The board, it's expected, will be made up of three St. Albert residents: one person who's using the day care services, one person who's involved in some aspect of social work and one person with a financial background.

In the past, with only one day care centre in St. Albert -- the St. Albert Day Care Society -- the centre itself was subsidized by the community and the province. Under the new plan, parents will pay a full user fee and then receive any subsidization from the province or municipality by appealing to the board.

Kathy Zielinski heading for Brussels

Kathy Zielinski, a University of Alberta student from St. Albert, will soon have a dual challenge to meet. Within weeks, she will be discovering what its like to run a business, but with the added hardship of learning the ropes in a foreign country, using a foreign language.

Kathy's opportunity came as the result of her economics courses at university. She is a member of the International Association for Students in Economics and Commerce, and it is with this organization that Kathy will be working. She will be in charge of the organizations finances, and will hold the position of assistant secretary general.

The AIESEC is established at 400 universities around the world, in 56 countries. Its purpose is to give its members practical experience in the business world. This is done through the International Job Exchange, a division of AIESEC that matches over 4000 students of commerce and economics to jobs each year. This year, students will be going to Japan, Australia, Ghana and Sweden. In Edmonton the Oilers hockey team has hired two Swedish students, and the Bay Stores and AGT also participate in the program. The group holds seminars and career days to further educate its members and they are connected to the Chamber of Commerce. There are 26 local committees of AIESEC in Canada.

Kathy will be battling with the two languages of Brussels soon, learning to decipher Flemish and brushing up on her French. She will also be attending the President's meeting, which was held last year in Edmonton and this year in Singapore. She will complete the final year of her degree when she returns from her stint in Brussels.

Kathy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bill Zielinski.

Thoughtful neighbors win name change for tot lot

The Mural Tot Lot at the corner of Mill Drive and Mural Crescent will be renamed the Roberge Tot Lot in memory of a man who's very much responsible for its creation.

City council agreed to a request from Allison Glass and her neighbors to make the name change in honor of Morris Roberge, who died last fall after living in St. Albert on Mill Drive since 1941.

Mrs. Glass told council in her letter of request that Mr. Roberge and several other neighbors built the equipment for the tot lot, and thus, the man "in a very quiet way helped this area of the community greatly until his untimely death."

In agreeing to the name change, Alderman Liesbeth Bakker said "I thought this was a very touching letter." Mrs. Glass and her neighbors, she said, should be commended for their efforts to change the tot lot's name.

Alderman Rod Thronson had momentary objections to the name change. He said he sympathized with the residents' request but he feared that an unwanted precedent would be established. "I think you're opening a door far, far wider than this," he told the other aldermen.

Alderman Roger Ayotte disagreed, noting that the final decision for any name change always rests with council, and so no precedent can ever really be established. "We can decide each one on its own merit," he said.

After Mayor Ron Harvey reminded Mr. Thronson that Mr. Roberge had lived in St. Albert for close to 30 years the alderman agreed to withdraw his objection, noting that "anyone whose been here since 1941 must be considered an old timer."

Boards agree library needed

On Wednesday, May 23, a joint meeting was held between the Community Services Advisory Board and the St. Albert Library Board. The two boards discussed the overall responsibilities each had - one, an advisory board, the other a board of management - in providing services for the citizens of St. Albert. The meeting discussed various ways in which the two boards could cooperate and prevent an overlapping of services.

The Library Board then explained its need for a new building, which the CSAB agreed was a number one priority in the culture life of St. Albert. Various ideas were exchanged as to location and the type of building which would best meet the library's need to provide a continuing service to a growing St. Albert.

Both boards felt it had been a most useful meeting, and it was agreed to hold another in the fall.

Regimental Ball huge success

The RCMP Regimental Ball, hosted by the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert on June 8 in conjunction with the RCMP Musical Ride, was a tremendous success according to Ken Pollon of the Kinsmen.

Over 180 people, including dignitaries, danced to the sounds of the Good Vibrations at the Club Mocombo last Friday night.

Insp. Jim Walker of the RCMP Musical Ride was the guest speaker at the banquet, and he talked about the fabulous history of the Musical Ride. Kinette president Sharon Ewart presented Insp. Walker with a gift, a book entitled, "Alberta Heritage," featuring the history of the province.

Ken Pollon added his own words to describe the event, "Extra super!", and noted the Musical Ride members who attended the ball said the whole dinner and dance was great, and one of the best ones they have been to.

Another Kinsmen, Bill Hite, was the master of ceremonies for the evening, and did an outstanding job in handling the chores.

No. 533 RC(Air) C Squadron

St. Albert Air Cadets

In Review

By F/Sgt. C. Leibel
Thursday, June 14 will be #533 Squadron's last parade of the year. Unfortunately it will also be commanding officer Mayor F. A. Maybee's last parade with the unit.

MAJOR F. MAYBEE

Major Maybee has been with the squadron as CO for three years during which period #533 was named top in Alberta twice. In the 1976-77 cadet year, the squadron was selected Top in Canada, Top Squadron in Prairie Region, and Top Squadron in Alberta. As well it had the top senior and junior drill teams in Alberta.

In 1977-78 #533 squadron, with the help of CO Major Maybee received all of the above awards with the exception of Top Squadron in Canada. It placed second in that category and was awarded the Sword of Honour.

Besides helping #533 Squadron achieve the above awards, Major Maybee is also to be thanked for the tremendous job working with the band.

#533's spectacular band appears annually in the Remembrance Day Parade as well as the rodeo parade and many others. #533's band under the instruction of Major Maybee and Drum Major, Cpl. Brent Bauman will once again be appearing with the Colour Party in the Rodeo Parade this Saturday.

Major Maybee has done a great deal for #533 squadron so on behalf of #533 squadron the officers and cadets, I would like to thank him for the great contributions he made. The three years were filled with fun and excitement. Cadets of #533 squadron will certainly miss CO. Major Maybee and regret his leaving. On behalf of #533 Squadron we wish you well in the years to come.

Registration to join #533 Squadron will be held in September.

Workshop tonight on volunteer programs

Do you work with a volunteer board of directors in a community league setting, church, social service agency or other organization?

If you do, "Board Training" a workshop to "revitalize your board of directors" will assist with specific areas in dealing with the board of directors.

Presented by the Volunteer Action Centre and the Continuing Education Division of Grant MacEwan Community College, with financial assistance from the President's Lecture Series, the workshop will concentrate on three major areas: The Planning Process--planning as a group, differences between boards of directors, advisory committees and policy making groups. Delegation--spreading the work load and The Power Issue--understanding and using it effectively. Guest speaker is Marlene Wilson, who has written one of the definitive books on the subject.

The workshop will be held Wednesday, June 13, 1979 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Cromdale Campus, Grant MacEwan Community College, 8020 - 118 Avenue. Registration fee is $5 and it is recommended that more than one person from each organization attend for maximum benefit.

Cold Lake Base to hold giant airshow

Canadian Forces Base Cold Lake will celebrate its 25th anniversary with a giant airshow featuring Canadian and United States military aircraft along with several well-known civilian flyers at 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 16.

The two and a half hour airshow will mark the Silver Jubilee of the northern Alberta military Base in its role as the "Home of Fighter Weapons" for the Canadian Forces.

Featured of course will be Cold Lake's CF-104 and CF-5 fighter aircraft along with CF-101s from Comox, B.C. Among other Canadian military aircraft participating will be the Edmonton based Hercules, Twin Otters, Twin Huey, Kiowa and Chinook helicopters.

To help Cold Lake celebrate its birthday, aircraft from the U.S. Air Force and Navy will fly up from southern bases to take part in aerial and static displays. These aircraft will include the F-4, F-111, F-106, F-14, A-7, A-4, A-6, KA-3, B-52, KC-135, A-10 and the F-15 Eagle, the U.S. Air Force's top-line fighter interceptor.

Of course, any airshow would not be complete without the Canadian Forces Snowbirds demonstration team. This renowned aerobatic team will be on hand along with the Portage, Man. Dragon Flies, a Forces' demonstration team flying helicopters. And to get the airshow off on the right note, the Edmonton-based Skyhawks demonstration parachute team will open the show.

On the civilian side, veteran airshow performer Al Pietch will put his Starduster bi-plane through its paces and Al Saetz will be there with his Pits Special to delight the spectators.

For nostalgia buffs, Edmonton's Western Warbirds will fly Chipmunks, Harvards, Mustangs and other World War II aircraft. Featured performers in this portion of the airshow will be Russ Jantzen in his Fleet Finch and Ed Bell in his Fokker Triplane who will engage in a Red Baron-type aerial dogfight.

The airshow is open to the general public and there will be no admittance charges.

CFB Cold Lake's gates will be open at 9 a.m. June 16 to allow spectators to view the many aircraft on static display. The airshow will start sharp at 2 p.m.

Meeooooowww . . . that smarts!

Dr. Boisvert and assistant Tilda Eisenbart treated their first patient Monday. Darth Chewey a young siamese belonging to six year old Tara Sokalski was in a fight with a bigger cat and needed disinfectant applied to bites on his tail. Darth was also the first overnight patient in the kennels at Mission Ridge Animal Hospital. Dr. Boisvert wanted to make sure the infection was cleared up and Darth was feeling up-to-par before releasing him. Right - Tilda soon had kitty purring after it was all over.

There's a new vet in town

Long-time resident Ben Boisvert opened the doors today on St. Albert's third veterinary practice. Dr. Boisvert joins Drs. Metz and Raspberry, both of whom are presently serving the St. Albert area.

Ben's practice, Mission Ridge Animal Hospital, is located in the shopping centre of the same name on McKenney Avenue.

Ben graduated in the spring from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine in Saskatoon and received his professional licensing June 5 from the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association. Before entering the Saskatoon school Ben graduated from the University of Alberta with a B.Sc. (Honours) Zoology degree. He spent last summer working with the Edmonton Veterinary Hospital.

Most of Ben's practice will be concentrated on small animals but he does expect to devote a significant amount of his time to large animals in the rural area surrounding St. Albert.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

Ben feels strongly that a city of St. Albert's size warrants emergency veterinary service and not simply a referral service. "I think we should be providing this sort of service." He intends to provide one and will be publishing a telephone number. He also said his previous experience had taught him the hours are often long but that somehow you always make it. His specialty is surgery.

Asked his opinion regarding a recent move by an Edmonton clinic into reduced rates for spaying and neutering pets, Ben replied that he didn't feel first rate service could be provided with cut-rate prices.

Ben, his wife Haline and their two children make their home in St. Albert.

Local Scouts gain from United Way

Boy Scouts of Canada - St. Albert Division have been submitted as a member agency of the United Way of Edmonton and area. Boy Scouts - St. Albert will be included in the goal for the October 1979 United Way campaign and funding will commence in January 1980.

Five hundred and fifty St. Albert boys and 140 leaders participate in the organization's programs. United Way volunteers who considered the application felt the agency is providing very necessary and worthwhile programs for St. Albert youth, and is a valuable service for the community.

Gravity Award won by visiting professor

Dr. George Ellis, visiting professor of physics at the University of Alberta, was recently named the 1979 recipient of the Gravity Award.

The award is the first prize of $1,500 in the annual essay contest of the Gravity Research Foundation in Massachusetts. The contest originated in 1949 and the list of previous winners includes many of the world's top scientists in the field of relativity.

Dr. Ellis' essay, entitled The Homogeneity of the Universe, points out that it has almost always been assumed by scientists, seeking an understanding of the nature of the universe as a whole, that the universe is homogeneous. This principle of homogeneity means that an observer on a planet located in any other galaxy, perhaps hundreds of millions of light years away, would see the universe more or less the same as we observe it.

He goes on to say in the essay that there is little observational evidence to support the principle of homogeneity and that various competing hypotheses cannot be ruled out. A second possibility which Dr. Ellis points out is that we live near the centre of a spherically symmetric but non-homogeneous universe. We live near the centre because the centre is the most favorable place for life to develop.

Another intriguing possibility outlined in his essay is that we live in a small universe which light can encircle many times. There are much fewer galaxies in the universe than we seem to observe because we see the same galaxies many times but from different angles and at different periods in their evolution.

Dr. Ellis emphasizes that observational tests of these and other possibilities must be devised and carried out as a foundation to theories of the universe.

Dr. Ellis is a native of South Africa and will be completing his year as visiting professor on July 30, 1979. He will return to South Africa to teach.

MacEwan College accepting nursing registration

The typical nursing student of the 1980's? Female? Eighteen or 20? Single?

Or married men and women with a family? Ages ranging from 17 to 60?

All are typical students in the nursing program at Grant MacEwan Community College since the program's inception in 1972.

And accordance to Judith Prowse, chairman of the College's Health Science Department, the less traditional will remain typical in the future.

The two-year intensive college program combining extensive classroom theoretical instruction with comprehensive practical clinical experience in local and rural hospitals and community health agencies provides more opportunities for students—whether straight out of high school, seeking second careers or beginning a first career after raising a family, according to Ms. Prowse.

As the only College-based nursing program in Edmonton (one of five in Alberta), it provides education over four trimesters plus two spring sessions producing graduates eligible for licensure as Registered Nurses in Alberta.

Graduates find employment in hospitals and other health agencies in such areas as medicine, surgery, pediatrics, obstetrics, psychiatry and extended care.

In addition to the basic nursing program the college offers two post-basic programs for graduate nurses.

With an additional year of training at the College, nurses can obtain an Occupational Health Nursing Certificate preparing them to work in industry or an Extended Care Nursing Certificate providing advanced preparation to work with people who are aged, disabled or chronically ill.

Also, Registered Psychiatric Nurses, by taking a supplementary program of the final year of the basic nursing program, can become eligible for nursing registration in Alberta.

Applications are now being accepted for September registration in all programs.

Applicants should be high school graduates aged 17 to 60.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Registrar's Office 429-2503.

Hilroy fellowships presented

The inventor of a new musical instrument, and four teachers who designed a program to help rural students become more familiar with the city have been awarded Hilroy Fellowships worth a total of $6,200.

John H. Bennett, the inventor of the "canjo" -- a banjo-like instrument which can be built by students -- received a provincial award of $1,200 and one of four national awards worth $3,800. Mr. Bennett lives in Pincher Creek and teaches at the Canyon School.

The "canjo" was recognized by the Hilroy Foundation as being not only a high quality musical instrument, but also one which, built by students, gave them extra incentive to learn about music. About 150 canjos have been built, at a cost of about $2 each.

After presenting the award May 31, ATA President, K. M. Kryzanowski praised Mr. Bennett's ingenuity. "The instrument shows great originality, and exceptional understanding of how to get and keep students interested in music."

Mel Spackman, chairman of the Alberta Advisory Council of the Hilroy Fellowship Program, seconded the ATA President, noting that "Mr. Bennett has given these students an appreciation for music which will last a lifetime."

A second provincial award of $1,200 was awarded to four Winfield teachers who designed an "Urban Life-styles" program for rural grade 12 students. The program, intended to ease the transition from rural to urban environments, involves several trips to Edmonton. Students in the program are exposed to cultural and recreational activities, and instruction in urban survival skills. The four teachers, Brian Wyley, Herb Drieche, Rod Drebert, and Marc Frey, will share the award, which was presented April 30 by ATA Past-President, Halvar Jonsson.

Language of Adolescents

A researcher interested in the development of language, Dennis Searle, was working with five adolescent students in Calgary when he discovered a gap so wide that it has influenced his work since that time.

Professor Searle was observing the students during the course of three of their classes and studying the language used, where it came from, and related concerns. To his surprise he found that in a two-week period not once did any of the five ever refer to personal experience when the teacher was present. It was a gap so total that it prompted his subsequent investigations comparing how language is used in the classroom to how it is used outside.

The assistant professor of Elementary Education at The University of Alberta says that much is made in some quarters of the "language deficit" of today's adolescent school children. However, he says, it is his experience that young people generally tend to get along very well in the world, learn, and do many interesting things outside the school.

Is it then, perhaps, possible that the language of the students is not poor but stifled in the classroom? And, more importantly if that is the case, is there not a resource of language ability not now being employed in school, a resource which could prove an important aid to learning? These are questions underlying Professor Searle's recent research, much of it conducted while he was undertaking advanced studies in England at the London Institute of Education, University of London.

The observations he has made during the course of his research support the contention that the language used outside the classroom differs substantially from that used inside.

Professor Searle says that he finds that the basic way in which adolescents organize and communicate their knowledge of the world is in a narrative mode - in episodic anecdotes. And, he says, narratives do lots of things; they do teach and pass on knowledge. Through anecdotes relating personal or observed experiences, one adolescent will communicate to another the fine points of such things as operating a cash register, maintaining a vehicle, or even divesting a parking meter of its contents. Without explicit reference to right or wrong, narratives very clearly communicate to the group the behavior expected and that considered unacceptable.

Professor Searle also notes that in the narratives all the "things that are supposed to be done" usually are - the grouping together of related ideas, use of logical connectives, and so on.

The narrative mode, however, is not one favored - and is even discouraged - in the classroom. There, the powers that be stress the language of classification: "What is...?" "Define..." .. And objectivity is an ideal; emotion is frowned upon.

Professor Searle believes that by forcing children too quickly into a dry and sterile language mode, breaking the continuity between the classroom, and the child's world outside, educators may be neglecting language ability which could prove a valuable resource for learning. Schools could, in fact, be "cutting out the tongues of students."

Professor Searle is continuing his research in this area. In the fall, he plans to work with a small group of children who are beginning grade one and compare the language they bring to the school with that of the classroom.

What's on the Agenda?

By Catherine Clausen

As a member of an organization, you have an obligation to fulfill certain duties. One of these duties is to be an interested and informed member, prepared to present motions concerning the business of your organization. Understanding basic parliamentary law will enable one to be a constructive influence in a meeting or convention. No scholastic achievements are required to learn basic procedures. The Alberta Association of Procedural Parliamentarians is a "PEOPLE" oriented organization.

THE ADVANTAGES OF PARLIAMENTARY LAW

1. The right to be heard is respected.
2. Matters that affect the common good of all can be discussed in a courteous manner.
3. Discussion is limited to one issue or subject at a time.
4. Group decisions can be reached within a reasonable period of time.
5. The will of the majority prevails, but the minority has ample opportunity to voice its viewpoints.
6. The fraudulent methods of those bent on graft, corruption, or subversion of the OBJECTS of an organization can be quickly exposed and restrained by alert members.

7. Individuals with ideals and ability can take constructive steps to integrate justice into the running of human affairs.

Since the Association's incorporation, classes have been held and are very well received by the public. Class instruction is being prepared to commence in the fall. I suggest early registration if you wish to take part.

The Alberta Association of Procedural Parliamentarians basic eight lesson course has classes held twice monthly. The course covers basics in meeting procedures, motions, committees, duties of officers, and chairmen, plus other related subjects. Registration now being accepted. Information: call 439-1327. Specific questions may be submitted to Catherine Clausen c/o St. Albert and Sturgeon Gazette, Box 263, St. Albert T8N 1N3.

An interesting comment came up on Wall Street Week, held in Honolulu, Hawaii last week. A Japanese financial expert, asked about the problem of a lack of energy resources in his country replied "you forget how we came back from the last energy crunch," adding that one of the best imports Japanese people got from Americans was the Protestant Work Ethic. Our people are among the world's most productive, which makes up

Old books and needy

Donations to the USC of Canada come from many unique sources ... "As I have had an unexpected sale of two old books," a lady from Victoria, B.C., writes, "I decided to send a little extra this time." Many thousands of Canadians use the USC to channel their contributions to the needy overseas. USC headquarters is located at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa.

Grade One Orientation For Protestant Pupils

Preschool children in the Protestant School District in St. Albert will get their first taste of school life from Thursday, June 21 when the Grade One Orientation program begins until Wednesday, June 27, the last day.

Children who will be six years of age by February 28, 1980 are eligible for the program.

The orientation program is designed to:

- (a) acquaint beginners with the school they will attend for their elementary education, and
- (b) provide staff with an early identification of children requiring special program needs.

School Attendance Areas

Classes will be held at Leo Nickerson School, 10 Sycamore Avenue for the Sturgeon Heights Subdivision; that part of Forest Lawn which is south of Forest Drive, including both sides of Forest Drive except for Finch Crescent; and children in Akinsdale Subdivision. School phone is 459-4426.

Robert Rundle School at 50A Grosvenor Blvd. will take all children living in the Grandin Subdivision who live east of and including the following avenues and crescents: Graham Avenue (both sides), houses numbered 1 to 51 inclusive on Gainsborough Avenue; east of Albert Lacombe School yard and park; all of Greenwich Crescent, Garland Place, Gilmore Crescent and Gresham Blvd; houses numbered 2 to 24 (even numbers) on Grenfell Avenue. School phone 459-4475

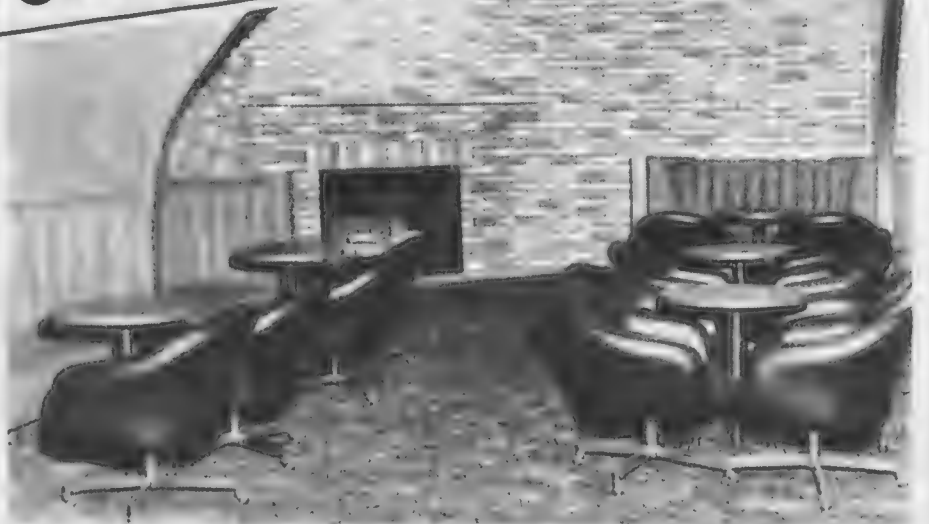

Sir Alexander Mackenzie School at 61 Sir Winston Churchill Avenue will take all of Braeside Subdivision and that part of Forest Lawn lying between Forest Drive and Sir Winston Churchill Avenue; and the Woodlands Subdivision. School phone 459-4487.

Wild Rose School at 58 Grenfell Avenue will take all children living on Glenwood Crescent, Georgia Place, Gould Place, Glacier Place, Greystone Place, Glenhaven Crescent, Greenbrier Crescent, Gatewood Avenue, houses numbered 52 to 91 inclusive on Gainsborough Avenue, Grandin Village, Grandview Ridge, Greenfield Estates; and houses numbered 26 to 54 (even numbers) and houses numbered 7 to 39 (odd numbers) on Grenfell Avenue, Grandin Woods and Granada Place. School phone 458-7575.

Ronald Harvey Elementary School at 15 Langley Avenue will take all pupils from Mission Park and Lacombe Park. School phone 459-5541.

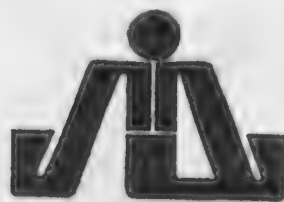

PRESENT GRADE ONE AND KINDERGARTEN STUDENTS WILL BE DISMISSED ON TUESDAY, JUNE 19.

'Simple Simon': first effort is a success

The art of theatre has been resurrected in St. Albert and those responsible have directed their talents toward the most important audience of all -- kids. By introducing the children into the delights of the stage, the producers, a local group called Theatre for Children are ensuring that there will be a healthy audience for it in the future and that interest in the theatre craft itself will not wane.

The play is "Simple Simon" and was performed at Sir George Simpson School, over the weekend. The children and adults involved must have had their noses to the grindstone to produce the three act play, which requires a set of some proportions.

The play is based on the old nursery rhyme about Simple Simon, and directors Margaret Hicks, Louise Stanley as well as set designer Wendy Stanley and choreographer Ellen Friedl were successful in achieving the other worldly atmosphere that gives such charm to fairy tales. Both the set and the direction were approached with simplicity and as a result there was none of the on-stage turmoil one often sees in productions where the cast is large and youthful.

The children were angelic, particularly Gillian Worsfold as Simon. As the Princess, Shauna Black had the right diminutive hauteur -- she was the ultimate pretty little princess, totally inaccessible. The Queen, played by Leslie Holth was suitably scathing to her subjects, and was a staunch believer in the Divine Right of Monarchs. She dictated the colour of clothing to be worn each day by her subjects, a decision based entirely on her own whims. Helen McCready made a most credible King.

The staging and blocking seemed well rehearsed, as the crowd of guards, royalty, subjects and the royal procession never seemed to get jumbled around on the stage. Tree Rooster Karen Korchinski did her job well enough to crow about. There was no doubt as to the source of the noise!

All in all it was a creditable first effort for Theatre for Children. I hope they will repeat the exercise soon, perhaps trying a play that is a bit more challenging.

Wanted: stage hands

Mr. Keith Hamilton, writer and director of a new musical romance "Jonni Royal," is looking for a stage manager and additional stage hands. This play will be a local contribution to the Alberta Summer Games, part of Festival '79. The production will be staged in the basement of the Catholic Church two weekends, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27, 28 and 29 and again August 3, 4 and 5.

As more hands make lighter work, Mr. Hamilton would like anyone interested in the performing arts to contact him in the evenings at 459-6758.

All amateur photographers residing in Alberta are invited to submit their pictures to the Amateur Photography Contest being held as part of the cultural program, Festival '79, running prior to and during the Alberta Summer Games in St. Albert.

Pictures entered in either category "Sports and Games in Alberta" or "Profiles of Alberta" must be 8" x 10", dry mounted and have been taken in Alberta. There are two age groups in each category, 18 years and under (black and white or color) and 19 years and over (black and white or color).

Prizes will be awarded in each category - four first prizes of $250, four second prizes of $100 Gift Certificates from 97 St. Camera, four third prizes will be various pieces of camera equipment, and honorable mentions will be given photo finishing.

The deadline for entries is July 6. Selected photographs will be on display in St. Albert during Festival '79, from July 21 to August 6. For further information call Pat McGlashan at 458-0855, St. Albert.

Northern Light Theatre to stage summer season

Northern Light Theatre has announced that it will present two hit musicals in an interlocking schedule throughout the coming summer. Opening June 20 is a return engagement of Northern Light's phenomenally successful PIAF: HER SONGS, HER LOVES, with Kathy Michael McGlynn back in the title role. Joining it in the repertory schedule on July 4 is EIGHT TO THE BAR, a new musical-comedy that was a smash-hit at last year's Charlottetown Festival.

These two electrifying shows will be produced by Northern Light in Studio Theatre, located in Corbett Hall on the University of Alberta campus (82 Avenue and 112 Street) through September 2. Northern Light Theatre hopes that this first season will be the basis for a major summer repertory festival in Edmonton, eventually encompassing classical and new works as well.

Joining Ms. McGlynn in PIAF: Her Songs, Her Loves are Andy Arway and Marvin Karon, with Sylvia Maltby providing musical accompaniment. PIAF is written and directed by Northern Light Theatre Artistic Director Scott Swan, based on the original city stage production. Music direction is by Angela Gann and choreography is by Jill Macdonald. Set and lighting is designed by Allan Stichbury, who recreates his Parisian bistro setting at Studio Theatre, complete with audience seating surrounding the performers onstage. Costumes are designed by Monica Boyd and Allan Stichbury and stage manager is Pam Chappell.

Eight to the Bar joins PIAF in the summer repertory schedule on July 4. With music and lyrics by Joey Miller and book by Stephen Witkin, this hilarious, off-the-wall musical comedy about four oddballs stranded in a bus station lunch bar on New Year's Eve was the hottest ticket at last summer's Charlottetown Festival. Jamie Portman of Southam News Services reported: "They're lining up on the street this summer to see Eight to the Bar ... it's a brashly likeable show, distinguished by a succession of neat and imaginative songs and a shrewd and funny book."

Starring in the Northern Light Theatre production of Eight to the Bar are Andy Arway, Marvin Karon, Joanne Kirwan Clark, and Kathy Michael McGlynn, who recreates the role she originated in Charlottetown. Returning to Edmonton after a lengthy absence to direct is nationally-known actor and director Mel Tuck. Music direction is by Angela Gann with choreography by Jill Macdonald. Set and lighting design is by Allan Stichbury, with circa 58 costumes and hairstyles by Monica Boyd and stage management by Pam Chappell.

Northern Light's PIAF opens Wednesday, June 20 at Studio Theatre and runs nightly (except Mondays) through June 30. Eight to the Bar opens Wednesday, July 4 and performs nightly through July 8. The two musicals then enter an interlocking schedule, with PIAF performed on weeknights and Eight to the Bar performed on weekend evenings through September 2. A detailed performance schedule will be published shortly.

A 10-percent discount is available to those buying tickets to both shows through the Northern Light Theatre Box-Office before June 20. Tickets are also available in St. Albert from Farlie-Mohawk.

Active summer for Alberta Ballet School

The Alberta School of Ballet is performing a new ballet, "The Snow Queen," at the Jubilee Auditorium on June 19 at 7:30 p.m. It will be presented as part of the School's annual performance and will feature the junior section of students.

The school is also proud to announce that Alberta Ballet Co. choreographer, Lambros Lambrou, will be presenting the premiere of his latest ballet at this performance.

Called "Zampa Overture," this work will provide the public with the chance to see some of the professional training provided, as the dancers are members of the senior school and the high school performing arts program.

Donna Sutherland, ex-member of the Alberta Ballet Company, and principal dancer with "Les Ballets Jazz," will also be presenting her work with the Alberta School of Ballet. Donna is teaching at "The Banff School of Fine Arts" this summer, and will also be travelling to Montreal to teach at The Jeanne Marler Dance Centre.

This year's Summer School is from July 23 to August 17. Kathryn Wade, of The Royal Ballet School, England, is returning for her second visit to The Alberta School of Ballet. Miss Wade was a principal dancer with The Royal Ballet, and London Festival Ballet, from 1965 to 1975, and danced such roles as The Gypsy Girl in "The Two Pigeons," and The White Pox de Deux in "Les Patineurs."

Talent search is underway

A third cross-country search for Canada's potential stars in both the popular and classical fields of dance, music and theatre is underway, with the du Maurier Council for the Performing Arts' release of details for the 1979 "du Maurier Search for Stars."

Amateur and professional performing artists, 18 years of age or older, have until September 15 to apply for an audition in one of nine Canadian cities where auditions will be held during October and November of this year. A travelling panel of judges, joined by regional arts administrators in each city, will visit St. John's, Newfoundland; Moncton, New Brunswick; Halifax; Montreal; Toronto; Winnipeg; Regina, Calgary; and Vancouver to select 18 semi-finalists.

Each of the 18 will be awarded $2,000 cash bursaries from the du Maurier Council for the Performing Arts, and will be featured in one of three one-hour prime-time CBC Network television specials to be aired in the Spring of 1980. From the semi-finalists, six winners will be chosen to receive further du Maurier bursaries of $5,000 each, and additional television exposure on a fourth CBC-TV "Search for Stars" special.

Application forms are now available and may be requested by writing to "du Maurier Search for Stars," Post Office Box 27, 180 Dundas Street, West, Toronto, Ontario M5T 1Z6.

Play to examine Ukrainian wedding

The Ukrainian wedding is a unique and religious and cultural event. It is characterized by a series of time-honored rituals, customs, traditions and ceremonies developed through a period of many centuries and made even more interesting by virtue of variations specific to different geographic regions of Ukraine.

An operetta, The Wreath, to be staged at the Citadel Theatre, captures the charm and color of the wedding in such a way as to elicit memories of the past and images of the future which promise the continued existence of the event through ever-lasting similar cycles. You will relive the preparation of the "Korovai" (wedding bread), the activities of the "Starosti" (matchmakers), the "Vinkopletania" (making of the wreaths) and the various forms of rejoicing before and after the wedding ceremony.

The production of The Wreath is the culmination of over a year's work. The cast of dancers, singers, and actors consists of individuals from St. Andrew's Cymk, the all-city Cymk Choir, Shumka, the Dnipro ensemble, Dumka, St. John's Institute and other cultural and special interest organizations.

The show will be presented at the Citadel in the Shoctor Theatre on Thursday, June 28 and Friday, June 29, 1979. Tickets are available at the Citadel Box Office, the Ukrainian Book Store and from cast members.

SCHOLARSHIP MATERIAL

Local dancers in Alberta Festival

Students from St. Albert School of Dancing took part in the Alberta Dance Festival, which was held in the S.U.B. Theatre last week. After months of hard work and preparation by teachers, students and parents, their efforts were rewarded. Many outstanding performances were presented by local children who were invited to perform one song and dance group number in the "Show of Stars" on Saturday.

Four girls received cash scholarships for promising dance performances. In total the school received 21 gold medals, 24 silver, 17 bronze and one merit award. Sixty-three awards out of 73 entries!!

The next exciting events for all the students in the school will be their gymnastics display at the school on June 16 and 17, and the annual year end dance recital at the Jubilee Auditorium on Sunday, June 24.

Bellocq "Storyville Portraits" at Gallery

E. J. Bellocq was a commercial photographer who worked in New Orleans before and after the first World War. Little is known about Bellocq but his pictures tell perhaps more about him than those who remember him as a small, misshapen man with a camera.

Bellocq's work can be seen from June 1 to July 1. Bellocq apparently loved women as is evidenced by the beautiful portraits of prostitutes taken in Storyville. If he was in conventional terms impotent, he was in his eyes and spirit an indefatigable lover and each of his pictures is the product of a successful alliance. Salvaged from a group of glass plates discovered in Bellocq's desk after his death, the portraits constitute the only fragment of his work known to have survived.

Storyville, one of the country's few closed and legalized red-light districts, got its name in 1896 when an alderman attempted to clean up the New Orleans waterfront by restricting prostitution to a limited area. The area came to be called "Storyville" and was so known until the United States Navy closed it for good in 1917. Storyville also became famous as the home of New Orleans jazz.

The prostitutes at Storyville were the subject of a recent controversial film, entitled "Pretty Baby".

PENTAX SYSTEM 10.

IT'S MORE THAN A POCKET CAMERA.
IT'S A POCKET SLR SYSTEM.

The Pentax System 10 is the world's first 110 SLR system to combine the convenience of a pocket camera with the sophistication of a 35mm SLR system.

Simply load the 110 cartridge and the film speed is set automatically.

Both aperture setting and shutter speed are automatically programmed by the camera.

With the Single Lens Reflex system you can pre-view the picture you will get; viewfinder warning lights tell you automatically if enough light is available or a tripod or flash should be used.

This whole system is designed to provide flawless exposures automatically, with a minimum of effort. And it all fits in the palm of your hand.

Eventually you'll want all the System 10 has to offer, such as interchangeable lenses, flash unit, power wind, and a host of accessories.

Don Wright is an artist who owes his independence, his greenhouse, his garden and his lifestyle to Factor VIII, a blood derivative -- and to Newfoundland.

He is 47 years old and a hemophiliac. About 10 years ago he decided to move from being an art teacher in Ontario to what he perceived as a more relaxed, less pressured life in Newfoundland. This coincided with the isolation of the blood product Factor VIII from whole blood as the breakthrough treatment for hemophiliacs. But Wright, even now, can't separate his way of life from his treatment. To him, they are linked, and decisions are made by him because he is primarily an artist not because he is a hemophiliac.

"I came here for the more relaxed way of life, for a life that made sense to me," Wright said. "Ten years ago my joints were in bad shape. I couldn't do half the things I do today. Today I feel better than ever before."

He was two years old, living in Timmins, Ontario, when he had his tonsils removed and was bleeding profusely. It was then his family discovered he had hemophilia, a rare condition occurring only in men resulting from the absence of Factor VIII -- the name given a crucial clotting agent in the blood.

At that time, the only treatment for hemophilia was bed rest and whole blood transfusions, which was dangerous because of the amount of whole blood which had to be transfused in order to control hemorrhaging.

"I was very lucky," he said. "I think I survived because of lots of luck and my mother's devotion. As it was, I spent a lot of my childhood in bed. To have hemophilia for most adults my age would have meant crippling by now."

There are evenings when Wright says he can feel his joints and when he knows he needs a few units of Factor

VIII.

But for the most part, his life is unfettered with health anxieties. He lives in a small coastal outpost about two hours' drive away from St. John's and the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service centre.

He saws his own firewood, digs his garden, is building a greenhouse and spent last winter working part time with his son on a fishing dory.

"I'm doing all sorts of things I wouldn't have thought possible 10 years ago," he said. "I'm doing them at my rate and within the limitation of the time and energy I've got, but I'm doing them."

Wright's independent lifestyle is cherished because he deliberately chose it. But he is aware that his independence relies on the supply of Factor VIII, which in turn depends on the availability of whole blood. This is the blood people give in blood donor clinics set up by the Canadian Red Cross Society.

"Every time I get the stuff, what comes to mind is the fact that people give freely, in good faith and in good health," Wright said. "They're there to help people like me."

Cypriots sponsored

The USC Board of Directors has approved sponsorship of Cypriot refugee school children under the USC Foster Parent Scheme. The program is being administered by the Cyprus Red Cross Society through the primary schools which the children attend. Sponsorship amounts to $180 per child per year. Further information may be obtained at USC headquarters, 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa.

TO BANFF AND BACK . . . WITH SIMON!

To say that the town of Banff is beautiful is an understatement; imagine most things that people think are essential for the 'good life,' - clean air, good water, fishing, golfing, and some more . . . Now design an educational institution and put it in the most tranquil part of this surrounding. Has this given you an idea of what the Banff Centre School of Fine Arts is?

I was attending a course/seminar on recording fundamentals. The teachers are good, the teaching system is excellent, and the facilities, the best in this part of Canada.

Now, there is more to recording technology that meets the ears . . . or is it the eyes. Most people in this business live in a world of technological overall, while the all-important artistic part is trodden under the heels of the guy with the mega bucks. Have you ever wondered why, with the sophistication of recording gear, your records sound lousy; your loudspeakers look and sound like matchboxes; radio programming sounds more like auction marts, all to the frustration and annoyance of the poor listeners.

Well, like I said before, we now live in the era of "we'll fix it in the mix" engineers; musicians who couldn't play their instruments, and producers who should be better employed directing nursery school dramatics. How long can we continue to use technology as a crutch?

The students at Banff (including yours truly) had a chance to meet and work with giants in the international recording industry; not to mention the fact that they actually record pop musicians in recording facilities that belie the fact that the Banff Centre is a school like any other school, only better, far much better.

DISCO REVISITED

Dear Mr. Wisden,

You seem to have missed the point by several miles. Neither Razbo nor myself purports to be journalists. As a matter of fact, your idea of journalism reminds me of a guy who was comparing his newly acquired Detroit import to a Vintage Rolls. Great journalists are very hard to come by. Very solid education apart (University degree does help), a good journalist must adhere, at all costs, to stating "the facts," and then add his/her "own opinions."

I will agree with you on one point, Miss Oor is refreshing, enthusiastic, and witty. This is an asset in journalism. Nobody intimidates anybody in this business - you stand or fall by your own merits. If you can dish it out, you must be prepared to take it.

ON THE HOME FRONT

By Dianne Hunt

What this world needs is an ugly Avon lady. There's nothing more humiliating than having a perfect coiffed, stunningly made-up, skinny vision of loveliness tell you your latest skin care problem is peanut-butter induced.

It's inhumane.

Now I don't have anything against beautiful people. I just think there are places they do not belong.

Take the local "blubber boutique." I don't need some twig-shaped minor trying to sell me a layered look with padded shoulder effect. Or inquiring sweetly as to my size. Getting the truth out of Nixon would be easier.

What I want is a nice, plump, matronly person who's going to lead me, no questions asked, straight to the one-size-fits-all catfans.

I also feel more care should be taken in the choice of mannequins for displaying fatty fashions. Draping a mammoth-sized lounge on a size nine form surely constitutes false advertising.

Imagine the disappointment of the buyer when a purchased garment refuses to fall in graceful folds, purchased garment refuses to fall in graceful folds, as illustrated, and instead forms lumps and unsightly bulges.

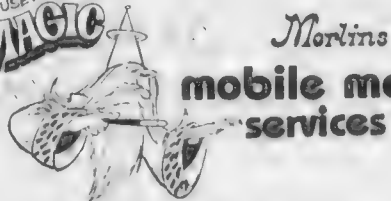

Speaking of bulges, why is it instructors for "keep fit" classes have always "been through the rotund route?" Why can't we have someone who is still there? A kindred spirit who will puff and pant with the rest of us.

A person who looks good in leotards is not going to inspire confidence in someone whose closest concession to shorts are baggy pants rolled up to the ankles.

Maybe a campaign should be launched to promote the employment of "less than svelte" individuals.

Who knows? We may yet see the day when triple chins are considered "job related assets."

Home buying requires consideration

Many young couples today will be considering the purchase of their first home. Whether it's new, slightly used or an older home, there are things to be on the lookout for in terms of construction, and possible resale value.

For the inexperienced, here is a handy inspection list. Take it along on shopping trips - and use it. You may save yourself some costly mistakes.

(1) Examine the foundation, including basement walls and floors for large cracks or heaving. Poor basement walls indicate weakening support of the house itself and water damage potential. Structural concrete basement repairs can be very expensive. Remember this - A sound basement greatly decreases the risk of buying a lemon.

(2) Good water drainage is essential. Check for downspouts and the condition of eavestroughs.

(3) Check the roof for torn or broken shingles, cracks between the shingles or exposed tar paper. Check the attic as well - look for leaks.

(4) In this day of high fuel costs, good insulation is a must. Inquire about the type and depth of insulation.

(5) Old wiring may need to be replaced and would be an expensive proposition. Check for the use of extension cords and/or dim lights - signs of inadequate wiring.

(6) Take a look at the furnace. Is the filter clean - if so, it's a safe bet that it's been well maintained. Also - be sure and ask the seller for samples of heating bills to confirm costs.

(7) Is the water heater owned or rented?

(8) Is the house accessible to: transportation, schools, shopping centres, churches?

(9) Walk around the neighborhood. Are there railway tracks nearby, high traffic areas, airports. How do residents in the area maintain their properties - are they neat and tidy or are they rundown?

(10) If you're serious about a particular house - check the zoning bylaws. Will the property remain residential or does the zoning allow for future commercial construction such as factories and drive-in restaurants?

A SPECIAL INVITATION TO YOU TO PARTICIPATE IN ALBERTA'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

1980 is Alberta's 75th birthday and the year for the grandest celebration this province has ever seen.

It will be the year for visiting your home town to join in the festivities.

For former Albertans to come home.

For everyone who wants to come and celebrate with us. Homecoming 1980.

It's our party. And who can resist an invitation to a party?

Whom would you like to invite?

The Province of Alberta would like to add its invitation to yours. To all the names you send in — friends and family out-of-province, whether or not they were born here.

Look for the envelope with the attractive new Homecoming 1980 symbol in your mail during the third week in June.

Send in your lists. And in the fall, the Province of Alberta will send a personal invitation to all those you'd like to have as guests for Alberta's 75th Anniversary celebration.

WHY the Year of THE CHILD? Children are our Future, our most precious resource. The "International Year of the Child" gives us reason to recognize the special needs of children.

Does a city child really know where milk comes from? To give City children a better understanding of where many food products they eat come from, is one purpose of the 'Farmer For a Day' program sponsored by Alberta Agriculture Home Economics and 4H Division. In July, City children will spend a day and a half at a 4H family farm taking part in a tour of the farm and participating in daily activities such as farm chores, gardening, milking, egg gathering, horseback riding, etc.

St. Albert pick up dates to the farms are on July 3, 4 or 5.

Country kids will spend one day, in July, in Edmonton taking part in a variety of adventures. In the morning, the children will tour an Agricultural Processing Plant. The plant tours arranged by the Food Marketing Branch of Alberta Agriculture include Heritage Foods - (pyrogies, cabbage rolls, etc.), McGavin Toastmasters, Honey Co-op., Dominion Fruit, Van's Sausages, Sunland Industries, etc.

Lunch time activities include playing at Hawrelak Park, choosing between the creative playground, hiking or paddle boating. Later on, is a trip to Kinsmen Centre to either swim or hike. Hikers will then tour the Muttart Conservatory Greenhouse pyramids. This greenhouse has four pavilions of vegetation: Tropical, Arid, Temperature (like Edmonton's climate) and a Show pavilion featuring various flowering plants.

Children ages 9 - 12 are eligible for this program and to register your child, please call 939-4351.

LOVE, AFFECTION, UNDERSTANDING... A RIGHT OF CHILDREN Affection! Love! Understanding! These are needs of every child.

Have you noticed how puppies like to be petted, fed, played with, and talked to? Children also like to be touched, held, tickled, talked to, and played with.

A "hello", a compliment, a warm friendly look, a smile -- these also make a child feel good.

Avoid saving up compliments and smiles for times when children have won something or completed a task. Give them warm feelings they don't have to earn. Love them and show them affection, just for being themselves.

Some individuals feel uncomfortable with touches of affection. Sometimes we have to start with more rough and tumble touching.

Give a hug, or a rub on the back, or just say, "Gee, you're neat."

When children lack affection, they strive for any kind of attention. Children need to be noticed, even if it means getting whacked on the bottom or yelled at. Ever notice how much more attention your child seems to need when you're frustrated or in a hurry?

Affection can work two ways - Yvonne Kennedy says this, "I get a really neat feeling when my two year old says: "... closer, Mom, ... closer, Mom ... love you!"

CITY KIDS

... will have an opportunity to participate in 1½ days of farm living during the July 'Farmer For A Day' program co-ordinated by Alberta Agriculture Home Economics and 4-H Division.

COUNTRY KIDS

... will spend time at a Creative Playground in Edmonton as part of the many activities planned in the 'Farmer For A Day' program, co-ordinated by Home Economics and 4-H Division, Alberta Agriculture.

Family Financial Affairs

By J. William Hunt

"The Decals on Your Financial Institution's Window can mean a lot more than you think"

Have you ever noticed when you walk into a trust company or bank branch that most of them have a number of decals fixed on the doors or windows? There are decals for credit cards, lottery tickets and a variety of other financial services and products.

Hidden among all these stickers is one that isn't flashy and doesn't catch your eye like many of the others. But it is of utmost importance to consumers who have money on deposit with that particular financial institution. It's the one that says that this trust company or bank is a Member of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The C.D.I.C. is a Crown Corporation that was established in 1967 to protect consumers from loss of deposits. If, perish the thought, your financial institution became insolvent, and was a member of the C.D.I.C., your money would be protected.

Just about every type of deposit qualifies for insurance. Savings and chequing accounts, money orders, deposit receipts and guaranteed investment certificates -- they all qualify for insurance as do debentures and other deposit obligations issued by member companies. In the case of deposits where your money is invested for a set period of time the insurance only covers those investments with a "term" of five years or less.

There is also a maximum set on the amount of deposits the C.D.I.C. will insure. This maximum is $20,000 for each person and includes both principal and interest. You may have $5,000 in a chequing account and $15,000 in two or three other deposit accounts with the same company and they are all insured. Anything over the $20,000 would not be covered.

If you have money in another financial institution, then you're insured up to $20,000 there too. But it cannot be just another branch of the same bank or trust company. It has to be another organization all together.

Now that we've got that straight let me throw in a few complications for you. For instance, what happens if you have a separate account for yourself with $20,000 in it but you and your spouse have a joint account as well with the same company? Does your spouse lose out? No! Joint accounts are insured separately from individual accounts. Again the maximum amount of insurance is $20,000.

Another complicating factor is that the contents of safety deposit boxes are not insured. Nor are deposit certificates that are lost or stolen or destroyed by fire. If that kind of thing happened you would have to take it up with the financial institution itself.

Deposits in Registered Home Ownership Savings Plans and Registered Retirement Savings Plans aren't insured either -- but they really are. Confused? Well it's really not as complicated as it seems.

In essence what you are doing when you invest in an RRSP or RHSP is giving your money to the financial institution to invest on your behalf as a trustee. So, provided these contributions are invested in a type of deposit that qualifies for insurance coverage, such as a savings deposit or term deposit with a five year term or less your money is covered.

But be careful. Rather than being paid to you as would be the case with a regular deposit the money would be paid to the trustee. Then it would be up to you to deal with the trustee for repayment and that is governed by the "trust agreement" you have with your financial institutions. So read your trust agreement carefully to make sure repayment to you is covered under it.

One of the nice things about this kind of insurance is you don't have to pay for it. Nor do you have to apply for it. The cost is covered by the member institution and the insurance is automatically applied when you make your deposit.

Another nice thing is you won't have to wait years for your money if your financial institution ever defaults on

Bumper Talk

Oil - it's your engine's lifeline

Of all the lubricants your car will require during the time you own it, oil is the most important. It helps keep your engine clean; acts as a coolant; and reduces the friction between your engine's moving parts that can cause excessive wear.

WHY YOU MUST CHANGE IT

Because the oil in your car is constantly circulating through most of the engine's moving parts, it picks up tiny particles of dust, grit and other material that can contaminate or damage it. This is prevented because they're held in an oil "suspension."

Eventually, however your oil will contain too much grime and must be changed before it can damage the engine. Just how dirty it can get can easily be seen by looking at it when it's drained out of the crankcase during an oil change. It's usually pretty filthy stuff. If you rub it between your fingers you can sometimes even feel the grit it contains.

WHEN TO CHANGE IT

its obligations. Depositors could normally expect to receive notification of settlement within 30 days of default by a member company. The depositor would receive repayment either through C.D.I.C. directly or through another member company.

The next time you walk into your branch take a look at the decals on the windows. If you see the diminutive one that says "Member: Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation," relax -- your covered.

WE NEED SOME HELP

A children's activity centre, Pays D'Amis, (Country of Friends) will be held from July 20 - August 10. Dress up clothes, pots, pans and dishes are needed for a covered wagon and fish tanks, and fish (plastic or real) for a Newfoundland display. Old fur coats are also required for the fur trading area. If you have any of the above please contact Lois Folkins at 459-6601. Anyone wishing to volunteer to help set up the centre, build sets, etc., would be more than welcome.

OUTDOOR SWIMMING

The Grosvenor Park outdoor swimming pool opened on Tuesday, June 12. It will be used for public swimming only. Schedules showing the times for the different sessions till the end of June are available at the Grosvenor Park Pool, Fountain Park Recreation Centre, at the City Hall and at the Community Services Department, 86 McKenney Avenue. Further information can be obtained by phoning Grosvenor Park Pool at 458-2002.

Swim tickets can be purchased at either pool at a cost of 30 tickets for $10 or 10 tickets for $3.75. The tickets are interchangeable and may be used at either pool.

Additional public swimming sessions are being offered at Fountain Park Recreation Centre during the month of June. As well as those on the regular schedule, there will be public swimming sessions from 4 - 6:30 p.m., Tuesday through Friday and adult swimming sessions from 8 - 10 p.m. on Tuesdays and from 9 - 11 p.m. on Thursdays. Phone the Centre at 458-2022 for further information.

FACILITY REQUESTS

Civic groups requiring the regular use of city facilities in September, can pick up a facility request form from the Community Services Department, Room 202, 86 McKenney Avenue (Mission Ridge Shopping Centre) during office hours, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Requests should be completed and returned prior to the end of June.

PLAYGROUNDS

Information about summer playground and daycamp programs has been distributed in almost all the schools in the area. The playgrounds will run from July 9 to August 17, 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, closing for one hour each day for lunch.

There is no registration fee for the program, but in the event of a field trip there will be a small charge to cover transportation expenses.

Registrations will be held on the first day of the program and will be taken throughout the summer, at any of the following locations: Salisbury rink, 81 Salisbury Avenue; Bracside rink, 61A Sir Winston Churchill Avenue; Flagstone Rink, 51 Flagstone Crescent; Lacombe Rink, 135 Larose Drive; Mission rink, Mission Park; Gatewood rink, Gatewood Park; Grosvenor rink, Grosvenor Park; and Akinsdale rink, on Alpine Boulevard.

A daycamp for handicapped children, aged 6 - 18, will give them the opportunity to become involved in outdoor camp activities which will include games, hikes, field trips and possibly an overnight campout. The camp will be situated at the Girl Guide Camp, three miles east of St. Albert. An alternate facility will be available in St. Albert in case of severe weather.

Any child with a mental or physical handicap is eligible for the program. This includes wheelchair patients, amputees, blind, deaf, epileptics, autistics, hyperactive and any ambulatory person with cerebral palsy or related cases.

The daycamp will be in operation on the same days and times as the playground activities. Except for August 2 - 6 when the Alberta Summer Games are held. Registrations will be taken on the first day of the camp.

Your engine's lifeline

turer provides his own recommendations of when oil should be changed. Some say as little as every 12,000 kilometers (7,500 miles) is sufficient, but the interval really depends on the type of driving you do. "Stop and go" city drivers should change it more often than the occasional Sunday suburban driver. In general, most professionals agree that 4,000 or 6,000 kilometers (3,000 or 4,000 miles) is long enough between changes.

WHEN TO ADD IT AND WHAT KIND

All cars - old and new - burn up a certain amount of oil as they're driven. Usually, the older cars will use it up faster than new ones.

Every driver should check the oil level each time he stops for gas. It takes just a minute or two and it could save you the expensive nightmare of a seriously damaged engine.

CHECKING THE OIL LEVEL

You check your oil with the "dipstick," a long rod, usually with a ring on the top, that sticks out from the crankcase of the car. Most often it's on the side of the engine.

Pull the dipstick out, wipe it off with a clean rag, and replace it in the hole, pushing it all the way down. Remove it a second time and read the oil level using the marks engraved on the stick. If you are at least one quart low, add oil. Try and use only the brand-name oil that the manufacturer has specified. You'll save in the long run. Be sure you don't overfill. Too much oil will "foam up" during driving and does not provide enough protection.

After you've added the oil, wipe off the dipstick and check the level again. Finally, make sure you replace the stick all the way down so it doesn't jar loose during driving.

ONE DANGER SIGN

If you find your car is using more than a quart of oil every 1,500 kilometers (approximately 1,000 miles), it may be a sign of trouble. In that case, have your car thoroughly checked by a competent mechanic at a reputable service station. It could save you time, money and trouble later on.

Hide Out Column

Hi, again. Don't forget the Teen Center Rodeo weekend dance. This Friday, June 15, the Teen Center will be holding a dance featuring "Morning Glory." The cost will be $1.50 for members and $2.50 for non-members. If members don't bring membership cards they will be charged as a non-member.

One thing I didn't mention in last week's column, though, is that the Teen Center will be supplying transportation on Friday for people who live in Grandin, Mission, and Lacombe Park. Times for the pick-up will be the following:

Albert Lacombe School: 7:15 p.m.
Mission Ridge Shopping Center: 7:30 p.m.
Lacombe Clubhouse: 7:45 p.m.

The St. Albert Teen Center would like to thank Ron Hodgson for the use of the van.

Well, that's about it, except we'd like to see you all there on Friday to have a good time and to get up there and dance to an excellent band.

St. Albert High Reports

By Angele Tellier

Once again I have found time to inform you of our latest news. Since the previous article was in, S.A.H.S. has been proceeding to round off the school year.

Our last dance took place on June 7 and I'm relieved to say, all went well. The theme was "Rodeo" and everyone present had a great time. The band was "5th Avenue Allstars" and they played very well. The majority of the people were dressed rodeo-style and everyone participated. It was a great success.

The art classes of 1979 are also proceeding to round off the year. Mrs. Rae, the art teacher, is putting on an exhibit on June 18 and you are invited to come and view it. It is being held in the lounge and will be open for display from 9 to 2 during school hours and from 7 to 9 that evening. Your presence would be most welcome.

Among all the proceedings to finish off the school year, exams come in. They begin on June 20 so now is the time to buckle down. All I have to say to that is ugh, groan, etc. Other than that, GOOD LUCK!!!

Until next week...

Paul Kane art show annual hit

By DRG

The highlight of St. Albert's art year took place last week at Paul Kane with their annual visual arts show. There was a list of fine talent on display.

Displayed in the show were a variety of works by students from Art 10, 20, 30 and 31. The show reflected the progress of the students from initial explorations to advanced techniques and filled the spectrum - drawings, illustrations, silk screen batik, paintings and photography.

So what was so impressive? Well the overall quality of the work on display, but to name a few that hang on in my memory. Well, there was the pencil drawings, all impressive but Robert Harrison displays fine control in his renderings and I liked Monica Taps' "Toys" and the sketches of Michele Christensen.

Monica Tap has an excellent water color translated from a pencil sketch of her favorite St. Albert back lane. It is this kind of thing that I like about this show, the way that students see things.

Other painters that impressed were Wan Lam with his water colors of trees, Kim Boyd and his water colors, (my favorite being "stumps") and Steven Garner's fine mood pieces.

In illustrations Michelle

Christensen and Robert Harrison had some memorable frogs. Also worth a second or third look were the designs of Chris Odinga and Michelle Yushchyshyn, the portrait of Premier Lougheed by Doug Stenrue and the tree studies of Ron Kraus.

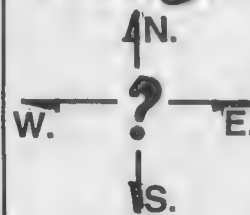

Paul Rudyk had the field of black and white photography to himself and was the best there. The profiles he did on some of his favorite teachers shows how he sees them as well as a good touch of humour in a serious show. Which brings us back to seeing again. The eye has to be taught to look at everyday things.

Anyway, it's the only art show in town and for the free admission you got the visuals plus the song stylings of Sue Shek and the fiddle of Lonnie Eschak, plus coffee and a chance to meet the leaders; teachers Donna Powell and Sandi Lawrence.

P.S. I mean this group even gets into book publishing with an illustrated book of "Oozo" - some kind of secret student organization.

10. Please excuse Johnny for being. It was his father's fault.
11. Please excuse Dianne from being absent yesterday. She was in bed with gramps.
12. Mary Ann was absent 11/15 because she had a fever, sore throat, headache—and upset stomach, her sister was also sick—fever, sore throat, her brother had a low grade temp. and a gall over. I wasn't feeling the best either, sore throat, fever. There must be the flu going around. Even her father got hot last night.
13. Dear Mrs. — I think it will be OK for Brian to go out at recess and noon hour now as his cold is better. I left him out last night.

Attention job seekers

The Job Seekers Handbook, a publication detailing job-search techniques, is now available for distribution to interested groups and individuals according to Jim Horsman, Minister of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower.

Produced by the Career Resources branch of the department, the handbook covers every aspect of the job search, from defining goals and abilities through to the final interview.

Copies of the Job Seekers Handbook may be obtained free of charge by writing: Career Resources Branch, Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower, 5th Floor, Devonian Building, East Tower, 11160 Jasper Ave., Tower, 11160 Jasper Ave., Edmonton, Alberta. T5K 0L1 or phoning 427-3659.

CANOEING SAFETY?

Students from Paul Kane were out practicing canoe safety on Lacombe Lake last Friday and from the series of photos it's obvious that something went wrong. The young lady who fell in - much to the delight of fellow students - received only a bruised ego and a lesson on what not to do.

UCW celebrates 25th anniversary

St. Albert United Church Women celebrated the 25th anniversary of their organization on Wednesday evening, May 30, when more than 75 ladies signed the register, presided over by Mrs. Susan Aldrich. Receiving guests were U.C.W. President Mrs. Olive Tookey, and Mrs. Lois Folkins, a past president of U.C.W.

Mrs. Tookey welcomed special guests, Mrs. Minnie Villett of Edmonton, wife of the late Dr. Harrison Villett, who was the first minister of St. Albert United Church. She also welcomed 16 ladies who were among the founding members of the church, and the Women's Association in 1954.

Present also were Rev. Leonard Musto and Rev. Robert Aldrich, who offered their congratulations. They paid tribute to the workers of the past who helped lay the ground work for the coming years.

Mrs. Harrison Villett spoke graciously of the early days, when she and her husband attended the second gathering of people interested in forming a Protestant congregation in St. Albert. Dr. Villett was president of Presbytery at that time, and was pleased to help with the organization of a new congregation. Mrs. Villett praised the early founders who worked so hard and was happy to see so many present.

Mrs. Gladys Govenlock, UCW archivist, gave a brief summary of the past 25 years.

Present were Mrs. Olwyn Anderson and Mrs. Marguerite Akins, former presidents of the original W.A.

Mrs. Akins was the president of the W.A. in 1961, the provisional year when women's organizations within United Church congregations across Canada were encouraged to form one organization to be known as United Church Women.

The first meeting of the U.C.W. in St. Albert was held in February of 1962, with Mrs. Katharine Blackie, as the first president. During 1962 and 1963 four units of U.C.W. were formed, with a fifth unit formed soon after. There are presently five units of the U.C.W. working together with President Olive Tookey.

Betty McKendry, of Grandin unit, and Nomi Hite of Geneva unit, both charter members of U.C.W. (1962) spoke to the gathering. Mrs. McKendry used the theme "celebration" and Nomi Hite, spoke on personal involvement and unit fellowship.

Mrs. Ethel Cuts, founding member of W.A. and the first choir, rallied the ladies of the early choir and concluded the service of celebration with choral benedictions. She led a hymn sing, with Mrs. Lois Hole, at the piano.

Entertainment was provided by the Sturgeon unit, who presented a fashion show of the styles of the past 25 years. It was greatly enjoyed.

Catharine Usher unit, which was named in honour of the first president of W.A., was the hostess unit for the occasion. It was ably assisted by the ladies of the Lacombe Park unit in serving a delicious lunch which concluded a happy evening of visiting and renewing acquaintances.

Vaccination crucial

The CNIB reminds all young women to make sure they have been vaccinated against Rubella, commonly known as German Measles. If you aren't protected, your child could be born with a visual impairment or other severe handicaps should you catch the disease during pregnancy. For further information contact your local CNIB office.

Your one-stop phone shop!

phoneCentre makes life easier with speed, convenience and savings.*

When you live in a phoneCentre area, you can shop for phones, take them home, plug them in. phoneCentre is designed to fit today's lifestyles. Forget fitting a service call into your busy schedule. You visit phoneCentre at your convenience. And look what else you can do:

Arrange for service — initial installation through phoneCentre costs less than regular field installation. Choose extra phones or exchange phones for different styles and colors — at the time of initial service there's no additional charge. If phones are added or exchanged later, there will be a small service fee.

Pay your account. Exchange a phone that's not working for a new one. Even return all your phones for a credit when you're moving.

Phones remain the property of AGT but the speed and convenience of phoneCentre are all yours.

Speed and savings apply only to single-line residential customers in phoneCentre-serviced areas. Not applicable to business customers.*

One nice thing about moving is phoneCentre service

Moving out of town, or terminating your service?

Remember to return all your phones before you move out of town or when you terminate your phone service. You'll receive a credit on your bill for each phone you bring back to phoneCentre.

Moving into town?

If your new home is equipped with phoneCentre jacks, visit your nearest phoneCentre store to arrange for service. At the same time, select new phones from the exciting range of styles and colors.

One week left for MD census

If no one's knocked on your door yet asking for your name, occupation, family size and "age category," there's only about a week left for them to do so.

June 22 is the last day for Sturgeon residents to be included in the MD's census.

The woman in charge of all the information gathering is the MD's assistant secretary-treasurer, Grace Roy. Mrs. Roy said the census must be completed and forwarded to the Department of Municipal Affairs by the end of June.

Seniors homes want more rent for deficit

By Jeff Adams

An additional $30 from each tenant each month could erase the $109,000 deficit that the MD's senior citizens homes face this year, says the Sturgeon Foundation's chairman of the board, Roland Prefontaine.

Mr. Prefontaine said the MD's four old age homes - in Legal, Morinville, Gibbons and the new one to open in St. Albert - are accumulating an average deficit of over $1,800 a month.

The reason, he said, is that tenants' $192 rent each month just isn't enough to pay for rising maintenance and operating costs. About $30 from each could wipe out that deficit, he said, and he's quite sure that most tenants could afford the increase.

"Ninety percent of people could afford it," Mr. Prefontaine said. "Where are you going to live for about $190 a month?" He used the Legal home as an example of how the deficit could be eliminated. The 60 tenants, if they paid an additional $30 a month each, would produce an extra $1,800 each month - just about exactly how much the home is losing each month.

Mr. Prefontaine noted that the St. Albert seniors home, although it doesn't open for a few months, will have a deficit as soon as tenants arrive because many "start up costs" can't be recouped until tenants' rents start coming in.

On April 1 the provincial government authorized the Sturgeon Foundation to raise their rents from $178 to $192 a month. Reg Austin, chairman of the board of management for Gibbons' Spruce View Manor home, says the increase just isn't enough.

Mr. Austin says he's also "certainly of the opinion that these people could pay another $20 to $25 which would just about wipe out our deficit." Many tenants receive renters assistance allowances from the government, he said, but "I think in 95 percent of cases these people don't need it ... I know it could create a great uproar but it's my firm opinion." The money, he said, is going straight into tenants' bank accounts when it could be used to pay for increased costs at the home. Mr. Austin said the MD's $109,000 deficit this year doesn't alarm him too much because part of it is start up costs at St. Albert's home and first year operating costs at the Morinville home. "It's just a fact of life," he said.

Permission from the government to increase tenants' rents by another $25 would certainly make things easier though, he said. Increasing rents, he said, is really the only choice that the seniors homes have. "You can't cut out food," he said.

Mr. Prefontaine said the homes face an additional problem because of government regulations. Management isn't given permission from the province to increase their rent until three months after the tenants receive increased assistance from the government. That three month lag is costly to the homes, he said, and it's really just "another way to get votes I think."

Agents' promises aren't fooling MD home buyers

Real estate agents' promises that schools will be built near houses they're trying to sell isn't the problem in the MD that it is in St. Albert.

St. Albert's separate and public school boards have received several complaints from suspicious home buyers but, according to Sturgeon District School Board chairman Lois Hole, the MD's trustees haven't received a similar complaint in over a year.

Mrs. Hole said the ploy of promising a nearby school probably isn't used as often outside of St. Albert because home buyers would know that schools are built less often. A lower population growth and density makes it even more unlikely that any school would be built beside you, she said.

However, Mrs. Hole said one promise that real estate agents are making that usually isn't true is that school buses will go right by the houses they're selling. Trustees have received several inquiries and complaints from home buyers that have heard this ploy, she said.

Many home owners that have heard this promise, Mrs. Hole said, live along roads that are just too rough or too narrow to allow a school bus to drive by. Some, she said, live on cul-de-sacs which are too small for any bus to negotiate.

The MD council's secretary-treasurer, Gib Boddez said councillors still hear the complaint from home buyers that agents told them their taxes would be extremely low. The agents, he said, tell buyers that because they're out in the country, they can expect their taxes to be half what they would be elsewhere. But that's just not true, Mr. Boddez said.

Generally though, Mr. Boddez said, real estate agents aren't making promises like they used to. "People aren't that gullible anymore," he said.

Mrs. Hole agreed, adding "I think probably they (buyers) ask a little more pertinent questions now."

In St. Albert, the Protestant School Board agreed recently to send a letter to local real estate agents to explain their future construction plans. The trustees also agreed to ask the city to erect signs in subdivisions telling when schools will be built, and to forward their school construction information to the city so that buyers will have access to it.

SENIORS BARBEQUE A SUCCESS

June 6 was the evening of the 8th Annual Senior Citizens Barbeque in the M.D. of Sturgeon. Although it was cold outside there was a very warm atmosphere within as Senior Citizens from throughout the M.D. and beyond dined and danced in the Red Barn.

The evening began with a delicious dinner followed by entertainment. The Vasilii Ukrainian Dancers from Gibbons and Coronado performed first and were followed by the Louis Riel Dancers, a traditional and native dance group from Edmonton. Next, square dancers from Fort Saskatchewan performed. We are proud to say they were joined by a square from the Morinville Rendez-Vous Club. Altogether it was very entertaining. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing to Sturgeon's own "Satellites."

Many thanks are due especially to Mr. Art Soetaert for his fine job as Master of Ceremonies and to the Red Barn staff for a wonderful job. Thanks to all the Clubs for selling tickets and finally, thank you to all that attended.

SUMMER PLAYGROUND PROGRAM

Summer Playgrounds for ages 3½ to 12, will open on July 3, in Bon Accord, Gibbons, Legal and Morinville. Each day, children will have the opportunity to participate in a variety of new and exciting crafts, games, songs and other activities. Hours of operation will be Monday through Friday, 10 am to 12 noon (ages 3½ - 5) and from 1 to 4 (ages 6 - 12). A Travelling Playground Program for ages 6 to 12, will visit the following centers: Lamoureux July 3 to 6; Calahoo July 9 to 13; Riviere Qui Barre July 16 to 20 and Villeneuve July 23 to 27. Hours of operation will be from 10 am to 4 pm.

BIKE MAINTENANCE COURSE

This program will be held on June 19 and 21, 1979, 7 to 9 pm, at the M.D. Warehouse in Morinville, and is open to any resident of Sturgeon, nine years of age and older. Topics to be covered include minor repairs, care of your bike and tune-ups.

CHILDREN'S CANOEING

Sturgeon Regional Recreation will be sponsoring a canoeing program for ages eight and over. Classes will be held on July 4, 5 and 6 at Heritage Lake, located west of Morinville. Participants can register in one of the following classes: 10 am. to 12 noon - ages 8 to 12; 1 to 3 pm ages 8 to 12; 3:15 to 5:15 pm ages 13 and over. Canoes and life jackets will be supplied and participants must have passed their Junior level in swimming.

For further information on any of the above please phone 939-4317.

Namao News

By Norma Crozier

FAREWELL TO REVEREND H. BLACK

The congregations of Namao, Patricia and Bon Accord United Churches held a joint service at the Bon Accord Community Centre on June 10 to say goodbye to Rev. and Mrs. Harold Black and their family. The large crowd gathered for this "Friendship Sunday," to share the service which included two baptisms, communion and special music by the Bon Accord choir.

Following the service, Mr. Jim Bentley spoke to the crowd of the dedication and service Rev. Black has given these three communities in the past six years, and how greatly he and his family will be missed. On behalf of everyone he presented them with an engraved silver tray, a purse of money and a corsage for Mrs. Black. Fellowship and visiting were enjoyed by all over the lunch which was set out in the basement.

This active couple have participated in many activities in the community.

Rev. Black served on the Namao Community League executive and organized and coached the boy's soccer club. With a family of four children Loeta Black returned to university to obtain her degree in education and has been teaching this past year.

Rev. Black has accepted a call to Unity, Saskatchewan and will leave Namao on July 1st.

NAMAO CONGREGATIONAL PICNIC

The Namao Congregational Picnic will be held on Friday, June 15 beginning with supper at 6:30 p.m. Bring hot dogs or hamburgers for your family, plus a salad or dessert. Games, races and a church service will follow.

All will be outdoors if possible, in the Community Hall if it rains. Relishes and drinks for supper will be supplied. It is suggested that the children bring as their offering a book (Golden or Arch books) to be given to the children's ward of Sturgeon General Hospital in St. Albert.

There will be no service at Namao on Sunday, June 17.

BIRTHDAY WISHES

Happy birthday wishes to Mrs. Maizie Stubbs who celebrated her 79th birthday on June 7. Maizie has been a patient in Sturgeon General Hospital lately but was able to be at home for her birthday where she enjoyed a birthday cake, flowers and cards with her family and friends. She has returned to the hospital and we wish her better health very soon.

STURGEON COMPOSITE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

Graduation exercises for Sturgeon Composite High School were held on May 18 with 139 graduates participating. An afternoon program was held in the school gymnasium with Rev. Harold Black giving the invocation. The class valedictorian was Fred Hutchings.

Following the afternoon program a banquet and dance were held at the Edmonton Plaza Hotel. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Donna Osborne. Donna Bokenfohr said grace to begin the banquet, following which guest speaker, Mrs. Lois Hole, school trustee for Sturgeon spoke to the graduates.

A toast to the queen was proposed by Wendy Perrott and Kim Horricks proposed a toast to the teachers which was replied to by Miss Helen Morgan-McNairn. The toast to the parents was done by Cindy Brenneis and replied to by her mother, Mrs. Brenneis.

Mr. Clare Downing toasted the graduates, replied to by George Rouault. Students and guests then heard messages from student's union president, Cherry Dodge and Class Historian, John Romaine.

Mr. Gordon Thomas, high school teacher, sang a song of ditties he composed for the graduating students, using popular tunes and his own lyrics.

NAMAO PIONEER PASSES

Mr. George Stanley Long of Edmonton passed away on May 30, at 89 years of age. Born at Namao, Alberta in 1890 he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Long who travelled by Red River cart to Namao in 1881.

As a young man, Stanley lost his right arm working as a steam engineer in a mine at Beverly in 1921. After the accident he worked in an elevator at the civic block for many years, then went back to his trade of steam engineering at the Misericordia Hospital where he worked until he retired.

He leaves to mourn his loss besides his loving wife Margaret; one daughter Mrs. Robert (Margaret) Ritchie of Grande Prairie; one son Stanley A. Long of Edmonton several grandchildren and great grandchildren; one sister Mrs. Mabel Clark of Edmonton; several nieces and nephews.

He was pre-deceased by his first wife, Elizabeth and oldest daughter, Elizabeth. Family funeral services were held on May 31 at Foster and McGarvey Funeral Chapel with Rev. Peter McKague officiating followed by cremation.

One week left for

She said the June 22nd deadline should provide enough time for her 10 census takers. "I think some of us are getting close to finished now," she said.

The biggest complication of gathering a census, Mrs. Roy said, are covering so large an area with so few people to do the information gathering. Ten census takers for the MD, she said, "are not really enough because it's an awfully big area."

Another problem is people who weren't home when the census taker calls but who don't relay the necessary information later. These people, she said, must call either the census taker in their area or else the MD office.

Part of the census information will be used by Sturgeon Recreation. Mrs. Roy said Recreation can use the age category statistics to assess their programs in the community. She said the numbers will "give them an idea of what sort of recreation needs there are in the area."

Namao 60 Plus Club News

By Hazel Martin

The 60 Plus Club of Namao held a regular meeting on June 7 at 1:30 p.m. in the Namao Hall with 27 members present.

Fifteen members attended the social afternoon hosted by the Villeneuve "Happy 60" Club on Monday, June 4 at 2 p.m. We really enjoyed meeting the members of the "Happy 60" Club, and spent the afternoon playing whist.

Mrs. Alice Kreller, Mrs. Bessie Craig and Mrs. Hazel Martin were honored with a birthday cake having June 13, 14 and 15 as birthdays. We blew out all the candles so should get our wishes. Don't forget the wind-up luncheon on June 21 at 12 noon. Mrs. Mary Nelsen and her committee were finalizing plans at the meeting.

We received a letter from the Alberta Games Council of St. Albert, informing us of the various activities for Senior Citizens. There will be no charge to seniors for most of the activities, and parking will be provided for, for chartered buses.

After games and cards a most delicious lunch was provided by co-hostesses Mrs. Millie Stanton and Mrs. Kit Hudson.

The Phoning Committee will be getting in touch with guests inviting them to our wind-up luncheon.

FATHER'S DAY BREAKFAST

Fathers will be treated to a special meal at a community breakfast this Sunday, June 17 starting at 9:30 a.m., at the Recreation Centre. Everyone is welcome to attend.

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Nominations for the Morinville Lions Citizen of the Year must be submitted in writing by June 18. The individual selected should have made an outstanding contribution and been of exceptional service to the community or other persons during the year ending June 30, 1979.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

More arts and crafts are still desired for display at Frontier Daze June 23 and 24. Current projects which have not been displayed at a previous Frontier Daze are being accepted. For further information contact Rhonda Stapleton at 939-4827.

HOME BAKING COMPETITION

In conjunction with Frontier Daze, the Ag. Society will again be holding a home baking competition. To obtain a list of baking categories or for further information call Marion Scott at 939-4378.

HANDYMAN SERVICE FOR SENIORS

Any senior citizens needing minor home repairs may contact June Berman at the Sturgeon Health Unit, phone 459-6671.

There has been no response to a recent request for volunteer drivers who are needed to aid senior citizens with doctor's visits, etc. Anyone who could assist by driving occasionally is asked to call 459-6671.

UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

The next meeting of the Morinville U.C.W., will be held at the home of Darla Lester on Tuesday, June 19 at 8 p.m. All ladies are welcome. For further information call Darla at 939-3061 or Ces Brown at 455-8541.

FARMER FOR A DAY

Any children 9 to 12 years of age still have an opportunity to register for the Farmer For A Day program being offered through Alberta Agriculture. Participants will have the opportunity to spend a day either in the country with a 4H family or in the city taking part in recreational activities and an agricultural tour.

Registration forms must be submitted by June 15 and are available through the schools or from the Alberta Agriculture office in the MD Building. The number to call for additional information is 939-4351.

Morinville mourns the passing of Ernie Brisson

The district of Morinville was saddened by the tragic death of one of its finest citizens Mr. Ernest Pierre Brisson, who died on June 4 in a truck accident near Airdrie, Alberta.

Mr. Brisson was born in Legál, Alberta to Rock and Fleuriette Brisson on March 8, 1946. He attended school in Legál, was an altar boy, and participated in community activities, most notably hockey with the Legál seniors.

As a youngster he assisted his father on the farm and was seen from an early age all about the community in his father's truck. He left home to work in the mines at Euclid on Vancouver Island with his brother Dan.

After returning to the Edmonton area Mr. Brisson met and married Colleen Campbell, October 23, 1965 while working for Con-Force Ltd. He then joined the Alberta Government Department of Public Works, Maintenance in March 1966 where he stayed for 10 years. In the interim he received a journeyman's certificate for gas and steamfitting. During this time three precious daughters were born to Ernie and Colleen, Linda May 2, 1966, Suzanne May 10, 1967; Carol, November 22, 1969.

Mr. Brisson kept his contacts in the area throughout his plumbing career and helped many friends, neighbors and relatives with their plumbing needs and also found time to help his dad on the farm and with the trucking business. In June of 1972 the Brissons moved to Morinville where Ernie subsequently spent much time helping out in the community: coaching boys baseball (midgets) to the 1974 Provincial Zone finals, working with the Minor Hockey Association both as a coach and a referee and playing with the Morinville Goodtimers hockey team. In between he found time to curl and look after the arena for a year. Mr. Brisson was very active with the Parish Council and the Knights of Columbus Local 5010 Morinville.

In 1976 Mr. Brisson realized a lifelong ambition when he bought himself a truck, quit the government and went trucking. After working alone and in association with close friend Louis Tailleux, also of Morinville, the two incorporated to become Ernie Louis Trucking Ltd. in January 1978 and their four rigs were soon seen hauling all about the province.

Mr. Brisson leaves to mourn him his loving wife Colleen, three daughters, Linda, Suzanne and Carol; his parents Rock and Fleuriette Brisson, Legál; two sisters and two brothers, Mr. Mrs. Rock (Collette) Belley, St. Albert; Daniel and wife Annette Brisson, St. Albert; Mrs. Norm (Lorraine) Rivard, Legál; Darcy Brisson, Legál. Many aunts, uncles, cousins and legions of friends and neighbors also mourn his passing.

ERNEST P. BRISSON

Prayers were held on Friday, June 8 at 8 p.m. at St. Jean Baptiste Church and funeral services followed on Saturday, June 9 at 10 a.m. also at St. Jean Baptiste. Reverend Georges Primeau and Reverend Rosario Simard officiated at the services which saw the church filled to capacity on both occasions. After interment at the church cemetery family and friends gathered for a light luncheon at the Recreation Centre.

Ernie Brisson will be sadly missed but not forgotten.

A Note of Thanks From the Brisson Family

My children and I would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their loving concern and support over the loss of our husband and father, Ernest Brisson. We feel very fortunate to reside in such a caring community. There are so many people we want to express our gratitude to, the list is endless.

May God bless all of you as much as we do. Your thoughtfulness will never be forgotten.

Our sincere thanks and gratitude

A Note of Thanks

Rock and Fleuriette Brisson and family would like to thank relatives and friends for their many acts of kindness expressing their deepest sympathy in the loss of Ernest, our dear son and loved brother. A special thanks to Rev. Primeau from Thorhild, Rev. Simard of Morinville and Rev. Levasseur from Legál who celebrated the mass of Christian Burial.

Thank you to the St. Jean Baptiste Church in Morinville and the many organizations who helped in making the ceremonies more memorable. The many flowers, cards, messages and prayers of condolences we all received was deeply appreciated in our time of sorrow.

Hire-a-Student office opens

The Morinville Hire-a-student office located in the Historical and Cultural Centre is now open on a part-time basis. Approximate hours are 3 to 5 p.m. Monday to Friday and the number to call is 939-2955. Students are seeking any type of work whether it be part-time or full-time, temporary or for the entire summer.

The H.A.S. office manager GERALYN McHugh is anxious to promote the students' services. "The benefits," she says, "are that summer jobs give students work experience and a sense of responsibility, as well as their own spending money. In turn the employer benefits by obtaining either replacements or extra help at a time when so many people are on holidays.

H.A.S. office hours will be extended to full time in July when classes are out.

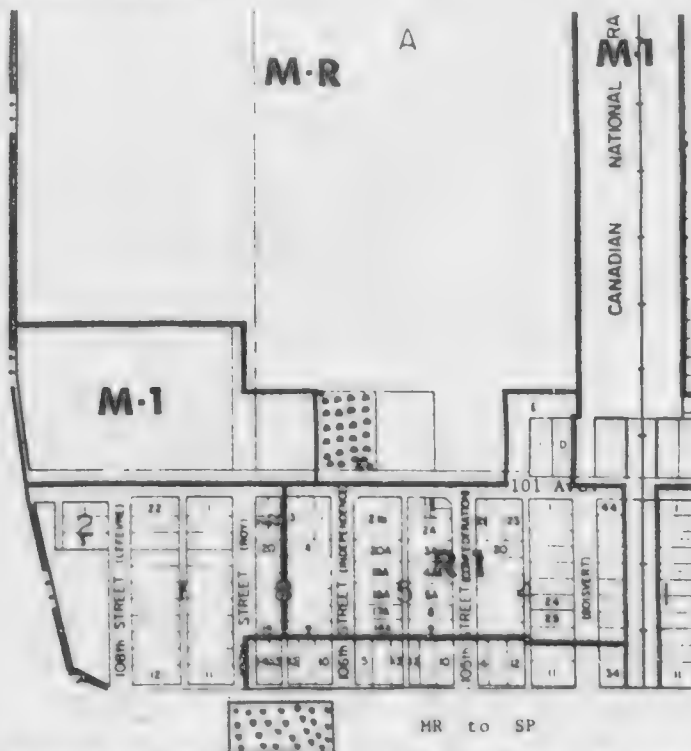

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of Town of Morinville having been given authority under The Planning Act, R.S.A. 1970, as amended, to control development within the boundaries of the Town of Morinville by zoning, will hold a public hearing.

The purpose of this bylaw is as follows:

That the Zoning Map attached to and forming part of the Zoning bylaw of the Town of Morinville be amended by zoning:

Rezoning of Pt. of S.W. 1/4 4-56-25-W4th (Pt. of Block A, Plan 2874 CL .94 acres) C. of T. #762228382 from MR to SP.

The proposed bylaw may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. in the office of the Municipal Secretary of the Town of Morinville. The Public Hearing will be held in the Town office on the 10th day of July at 8:30 p.m. Written objections to the proposed bylaw will be received by the Municipal Secretary at Town office until 4:00 p.m. on the 10th day of July, 1979.

Objections shall be submitted in writing prior to the meeting. Those written objections which have been received before the designated time will be discussed at the meeting before further presentations will be recognized.

Frontier Daze offers variety of dance entertainment

Mrs. J. M. Bailey had a pleasant surprise the week of May 21 when old friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Taylor of Nanaimo, B.C., drove in their big trailer to pay her a visit. They were touring Alberta via Banff, Waterton Lakes and returning home via the Yellowhead Pass and points along that highway.

With the cool weather and backward spring leaves were long overdue coming out on the trees and bushes. Gardens were also late in being planted. With gardens in and frost as recent as the week of May 25 bedding plants were held back from planting out. A few optimistic gardeners who did put out such were rewarded by having them frozen. Morinville's annual Frontier Daze, held this year on June 23 and 24, features a variety of excellent stage entertainment. The beer gardens will be held in the arena from 12 noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday, with Irwin's Alpine Band providing enjoyable Bavarian music starting at 1 p.m.

Saturday evening there will be dancing to the Lennox in the Recreation Centre, for the teens, or to the Avenue in the arena for the adults. Admission to either dance is still only $3.50.

On Sunday, June 24, live local entertainment will be featured in the arena from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. The Louis Riel Dancers Society are one group which will perform at various times in the afternoon, as well as in the evening. Their group consists of 10 adults and eight children, who will entertain us to dances like the Red River Jig, and the Dusk Dance. Their own band provides lively music which just might get your own feet tapping.

On Sunday evening, the grand finale features singing by Brandywine from 8 to 9:30 p.m., as the theme for Frontier Daze is "A Salute to the International Year of the Child" the majority of their program will be directed towards the children. Brandywine is a highly talented husband and wife team. Andrea and David Spalding, who are folk singers specializing in the traditional music of Great Britain and North America.

Their performance includes solo songs and duets unaccompanied or with guitar, autoharp, dulcimer, recorder, chimes and other instruments, reinforced by commentary and dialogue with the audience in an easy and relaxed manner.

For fun and entertainment, come to Frontier Daze on June 23 and 24.

FALL COURSES

SOCIAL EVENING

A social evening in honor of David Bolle and Agnes Rivard will be held on Friday, June 15 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Legal Community Hall, featuring Gates of Dawn. Everyone welcome.

ROSES PLAY HOST

Legal Club 60 Roses were hosts for the Senior Citizens of St. Albert on May 30 at the club. Many games were played and everyone had a most enjoyable afternoon. Bingo winners were Art Morin, E. Laplante, M. Vaugeois, Mrs. Nelson, and Mrs. St. Martin.

Door prizes were won by Art Morin and Mrs. Charbonneau.

Come again St. Albert.

Much activity around the Club 60 Roses these days, trees are being moved around the Chateau Sturgeon and around our Club park. The grounds are beginning to look very attractive. We invite you all to visit our senior citizens and see our club.

SMOKE DETECTOR BLITZ

In conjunction with clean-up week the Legal Fire Department conducted a door to door smoke detector blitz in the Village of Legal. The purpose of this blitz was to conduct a survey on who had smoke detectors and make some available to those who wished to purchase one.

The Fire Department is pleased to announce that approximately 85 percent of the village population is now equipped with smoke detectors. Smoke detectors are still available at the village office between the hours of 1 p.m. - 5 p.m.

HANDYMAN AVAILABLE

Attention Senior Citizens: Anyone requiring the services of a handyman for minor home repair such as plumbing, carpenter etc., please contact June Berman at 459-6671. This service is being organized through the Sturgeon Health Unit for senior citizens. Do give June a call if you require any such services.

Anyone wishing to take fall courses are asked to please contact Carmen Morin at 961-3869 in order that she can in turn give Sturgeon Regional a basic idea of what type of courses to be included in the fall tabloid.

Sturgeon Regional are planning to have the tabloid of fall courses out to the public in early September. If there are any specific courses that you would like to see offered please contact Carmen as soon as possible as this is the only way we know what courses to offer.

BALLEK'S SECOND SON

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Ballek are pleased to announce the arrival of their second son, Adrien Guy, a brother for Jason was born June 5, weighing 6 lbs. 14 ozs. The proud and happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ballek of Andrew and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tymchuck also of Andrew.

Special thanks to Dr. Gray, Dr. Unger and nursing staff

MADAME FETE AU VILLAGE

The Legal Recreation Board is now accepting entries for "Madame Fete au Village." Only five applicants will be accepted and will vie for a variety of prizes.

Have you a neighbour, friend, or wife that you would like to see receive special attention. The Recreation Board feels that many married ladies deserve recognition for work and service well done, both in the family and in community activities.

The only restrictions are that the applicant must be married and live within the Legal area. There will be no age limit imposed. The applicants will be judged on poise, talent and community involvement. "Madame Fete au Village" will represent the Village of Legal at many functions.

For information or registration please contact Claudette Ouellette 961-3675 after 4 p.m.

BABY IN THE NEWS

Dwayne (Butch) and Glynis Matkea of R.R. #1 Calahoo, Alberta, are receiving congratulations now that their darling son joined the family.

Shawn Daryl, 9 lbs. 9 ozs. in weight, 22 inches in length, was born on Tuesday, May 15, 1979 at 6:52 p.m. in Sturgeon General Hospital, St. Albert, Alberta.

Shawn's grandparents - John and Vi Matkea from Edmonton, Alberta, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Duke from Humboldt, Saskatchewan are delighted as are great grandparents - Stan and Lois Duke also from Humboldt who, by the way, are coming to visit and see their new great grandson. Congratulations and welcome to Calahoo!

BABY SHOWER HELD FOR SHAWN MATKEA

Maintaining a tradition in Calahoo, it didn't take the community long to welcome its newcomer with a baby shower, held in the Gazebo on Thursday, May 31, 1979 at 7:30 p.m., sponsored by aunts, Mrs. W. Sharon (Judy) Zoschke and Mrs. C. (Diane) Fowler of Calahoo.

Twenty-four relatives, friends and neighbors enjoyed togetherness and fun. The head table was tastefully decorated with blue and white streamers forming an arch and a centerpiece on the white tablecloth, and seated at the table was the baby's mother, Glynis, Mrs. D. (Butch) Matkea; grandmoth-

After bingo games all the lovely and useful gifts were opened and admired. This was followed by a bounteous buffet lunch, all the while fondling that dear little 16 day-old Shawn.

The door prize was won by Jay and Harriet McGeough's daughter Jenine of Calahoo.

Glynis was so appreciative of the kind welcome shown her and graciously thanked everyone for this memorable evening, and invited them to come visit them at

George Shewchuk speaks on horticulture

By Liz McLeod

The 200th meeting of Calahoo Women's Institute, was held in the Gazebo on Wednesday, May 23, beginning at 8 p.m., with all members present.

The husbands, Fred Brown, Fred Wheatley, Vic Albrecht, Tom Campbell, John Thatcher, Carl Bergstreiser, and Kris Dalheim, joined in with visitors, Steve and Pat Sobolewski and Roy and Jean Klapstein, to watch slides and listen to Mr. George Shewchuk explain the art of preparing vegetables and flowers for a Horticulture Show.

Many questions were put forth and different ways of getting more growth or ripening of vegetables faster by fertilizing.

Federated Garden Clubs of Minnesota Inc., 2635 Burd Place, St. Louis Park, Minn. 55426.

The slides shown were some of Mr. Shewchuk's prize winning entries to show that the main thing to remember when exhibiting is uniformity in size, color and quality, and it isn't always the biggest entry that wins but most often a medium size and not too ripe that wins the prize.

After this pleasant hour and a half of listening to this enthusiastic gardener and judge he and his lovely wife were given lunch by Mrs. Myles Kerr, who was hostess for the evening.

Calahoo W.I. then held a short business session since the Resolutions had to be discussed so that our delegate, Mrs. K. Dalheim, would know how the group felt she should vote upon them at the Provincial Convention.

In the correspondence, the letter from the Cancer Society was thanking this group for the donation.

A letter from the Provincial Educational Convenor on Citizenship and Education, Mrs. Ellen R. Maser, gave a format on Input for Resource People such as: know your community, evaluate its needs, give community feedback, form a steering committee, call a general meeting and create a directing body for the project.

Mrs. G. Kaye McMillan sent word to Mrs. K. Mary Dalheim, re: K-Days serving in the tea room. She also informed this group that henceforth each group serving in the tea room will be required to supply their own tablecloths and tea towels. She added that Wednesday, July 25 will be Calahoo W.I.'s day to serve lunch there.

There was a short discussion about the Flower

Show which will be held on Sunday, August 12 this year in the Agricultural Society's Arena on the ground floor.

The roll call was an exchange of plants. The door prize that was brought by Mrs. F. Isabel Wheatley was won by our visitor, Steve Sobolewski of R.R. 1 Calahoo. Then during lunch time, a candlelit cake was set before Isabel Wheatley and Mary Dalheim while all rose to sing to them.

Happy visiting rounded out this full evening's agenda.

EILEEN KOLESAR HONORED AT SHOWER

Fresh flowering plum bouquets adorned the head table and the guest tables for another pleasant evening when Miss Eileen Kolesar from Calahoo, Frank and Pauline's eldest daughter (now living in Edmonton) was honored with a miscellaneous shower. Thirty-nine ladies and two youngsters enjoyed togetherness and fun.

Sunday, June 3, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. in the Gazebo was the time and place of this happy event with relatives, friends and neighbors wishing Eileen well in her forthcoming marriage.

The hall was decorated with blue and white streamers from the ceiling to either side of the table, enhanced by candles and seated at this head table were Mrs. Mary Kolesar (grandmother), Mrs. Pauline Kolesar (mother); Mrs. Vi Slecza (mother-in-law to be), Miss Donna Boddez, Eileen, sister Marlene Kolesar and sisters-in-law to be, Sherril and Sue Slecza.

There were a few games of bingo played and Mrs. T. Rose Callihoo, Sherril Slecza, Mrs. J. Theda Verbeek, Mrs. J. Helen Radjo, Mrs. B. Bun O'Neill and the bride to be Eileen, were the lucky winners.

Then when it came time to open the gifts, Eileen was asked to make a wish for the person whose gift she opened, and then the one who brought the gift would make a wish for each subsequent person. Some elaborate wishes resulted, such as trips, holidays, dates with V.I.P.'s, triplets, cars and the like.

After all the lovely gifts were opened and admired by all present, a buffet lunch was enjoyed and this gave Pauline, Eileen and Marlene an opportunity to make the rounds, saying hello to all present.

Eileen graciously thanked all for coming and for the gifts, hoping they could all be present at their wedding. She also thanked Mrs. G. Elsie Berry and her aunt, Mrs. C. Ruby Gibson from Namao, for making this evening possible. Mrs. V. Cecile Berry and four Berry sisters - Theda Verbeek, Rose Callihoo, Mabel Ducholke and Arvilla Majeau, all helped by bringing lunch also.

Mabel Ducholke won the door prize.

Renewing acquaintances was the order of this friendly evening, besides wishing Eileen well in her forthcoming marriage.

MARY CALLIHOO CELEBRATES 86th BIRTHDAY

Mother Nature provided a sunny day so that a barbecue supper could be enjoyed by relatives and friends at the Richard Mitchell residence in Calahoo to honor a very fine young lady who has seen many changes in lifestyle over the years.

Mrs. Mary Callihoo, who is presently staying at Richard and Florence Mitchell's was 86 years old on June 3.

Mary's sister Clara Loyer and Clara's grandson, Darrell Loyer, were among the many relatives to wish Mary many more years of good health and happiness.

More good wishes came from Grandpa - (Pete McLeod) who wished his teenage queen, (Mary) many years of good health, good luck and good cheer.

Congratulations Mary, from all your friends and neighbors in Calahoo and the district!

Gibbons girls place in Alberta Baton Twirling Association competition

This was the last competition of the current year. Miss Majorette of Alberta was decided in four categories: Miss Peewee, Miss Junior, Miss Juvenile and Miss Senior Majorette.

Rhonda Coley placed second in the Miss Peewee Majorette of Alberta. Rhonda and Christain LeBrecht of Calgary were tied in the pageant for first and both received beautiful tiaras. Christain won over Rhonda in Marching and Twirling to win the Miss Peewee Majorette of Alberta title. Rhonda received a beautiful second place trophy. Rhonda says she will be number one next year.

Other girls from Gibbons were Lori Jo McWhirter, placing second in her solo twirl, Shelly McWhirter placing fourth in her solo twirl, Tracey Machalek placed second in Novice Military Marching (age 10), Debbie Schimp placed second in Novice Military Marching (age 11), Kimberley Thompson placed second in Novice Military (age 5 - 6); Rhonda Coley also placed fourth in Beg Solo Twirling; third in Beg T Street Marching; and fourth in Novice Basic Marching.

All the girls would like to thank their teacher Carol Phase from Edmonton for her time and effort teaching baton. Carol is a member of the Edmonton Girls Pipe Band and was a member of the Commonwealth Moss Pipes and Drums who played for the queen during the Commonwealth Games.

Agri-Fair set to go

Gibbons Agri-Fair begins this Friday, running right through the weekend.

A teen disco starts things off Friday night, with a pancake breakfast taking over Saturday morning. A parade, dairy show, exhibits of home and handicrafts, and an adult dance all follow that day, with a horse show, pet show and car rally following on Sunday.

In addition, a minor soccer tournament, a barbecue, bingo and a fish pond are among several events that will be continuing all weekend.

Plan to attend! Admission is $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for those 15 years and under.

POTTERY SALE

The Sturgeon River Pottery Guild will be holding a sale of pottery during the Gibbons Agri-Fair June 15 to 17. A pottery demonstration will be featured and a display of special pots. Watch for and visit this booth at the fair.

REPAIRS: CALL JUNE

June Berman of the Sturgeon Health Unit would like any Senior Citizens who have minor house repairs to give her a call at the Health Unit at 459-6671. The rates are very reasonable and now you will have a chance to get some of those bothersome jobs done.

Gibbons Beaver, Cub and Scout news

Cubs from the 1st Gibbons Pack took part in the Kub Kar Rally held at Northgate Shopping Mall and did very well. Jon Speirs won third prize for fastest car and Shannon Miller won third prize for design. Each boy won a knapsack. The event was sponsored by Woodward's.

The Cubs went on a nature hike and practised photography skills on June 7. A sincere "thank you" to Mrs. Della Gibbons for her assistance.

The Cubs will hold their last meeting of the year on June 14 at Langston's. They will have a wienner roast, singing-song and weather permitting a swim.

The 1st Gibbons Beavers participated in the "Elk Island Sharing Day" at Camp Blacklock. Approximately 200 Beavers attended from the Elk Island District plus a colony from Vegreville. The Beavers went on a nature hike before lunch then spent the afternoon on a variety of activities.

The Beavers had their last meeting of the year on June 7 at Sample's in the form of a wienner roast. Thank you to the Sample family for giving us the opportunity to close off the year in such an enjoyable manner.

THANK YOU

Thank you to the Curling Club and Firemen who donated bottles to the Scouts.

Also a very special and sincere thank you goes out to all the parents, members of the group committee, leaders and to the community as a whole for their unfailing support throughout the year. We had a fantastic year in which both a Beaver Colony and Scout troop were established and we hope we have an even better year to come!

FALL REGISTRATION

Registration night for Beavers, Cubs, and Scouts will be on September 13 at 7 p.m. in the Community Hall.

Bon Accord Council Briefs

1979 CENSUS IS OVER

The 1979n Census for the Village of Bon Accord was completed as of June 1, 1979 when a TOTAL POPULATION OF 1156 was recorded. This figure is made up as follows: children - 462, senior citizens 26 and others - 668.

Of the 462 children, 25 are in high school, 220 in kindergarten to Grade 9, and 217 in pre-school. Out of the 217 pre-school children, 43 were born since the last census (June 1, 1978).

Statistics also show that 384 people commute to work outside Bon Accord; 312 to Edmonton, 22 to Fort Saskatchewan, 16 to the Namao Air Base, 11 to Morinville. The remaining 23 travel to one of the following: Namao Schools, Redwater, St. Albert, Westlock, Horse Hill and the International Airport.

Council would like to thank all residents for their co-operation in providing the census data which is required by Alberta Municipal Affairs for statistical and grant purposes and is also passed on to the Bon Accord School, Sturgeon School Division, the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission and various other Government Departments for information.

AMBULANCE SERVICE THANKS SUPPORTERS

On behalf of the Bon Accord-Gibbons Emergency Ambulance Service a sincere thank you is extended to all those who helped with the fund raising auction sale -- to Spencer Auction Services who donated their services, to all those who donated and consigned goods to be sold, to all those who patronized the event and especially all those good community workers who worked so hard in organizing the event. The service realized a net return over $1,900.

SCHOOL EVENTS

A number of school events are slated for June. For those who do not receive a newsletter from the school, mark these dates on your activity calendar. June 21 at 7:30 p.m. -- Junior High school band and Elementary School choir concert in the school gym; Friday, June 22 the Primary School track and field day at the school; Wednesday, June 27, a Festival for grades 4 to 6 -- a culmination of school activities and programs.

SON BORN TO BENEDYCHAK'S

Congratulations are extended to Ted and Betty Benedyczak on the birth of a son, Christopher Joseph, 7 lbs. 14 ozs. on May 17.

A.W.O.L. GIFT

A crystal decanter bearing a Moose Jaw Air Force crest has gone AWOL from the junior high graduation exercises held in the Bon Accord school. This is a valued gift and the owner would appreciate its return. It may be returned to the school.

POTTERY SALE

The Sturgeon River Pottery Guild will be holding a sale of pottery during the Gibbons Agri-Fair, June 15 to 17. A pottery demonstration will be featured and a display of some special pots. Watch for and visit this booth at the Fair.

LOST JEWELLERY

A ladies' wristwatch and a child's necklet have been found at the Bon Accord Laundromat. Identify and claim from Sadie Allen, 921-3813, 5203 - 52 Street.

SOCCER WINNERS

Bon Accord soccer peewees continued their domination of the peewee division by defeating Morinville 7-1 on June 7. Prior to that they tied Gibbons 1-1, shut out both Namao and Redwater 4-0, and defeated Alexander by 13 - 1. Watch out for this dynamic young team.

TINY TOTTERS TO MEET

A general meeting for all Tiny Tot parents will be held June 19 at 8 p.m. at the Bon Accord Community Centre. Fund raising will be discussed at this meeting. The Pokerthon has been cancelled until further notice.

TUG-O-WAR CHALLENGE

The mayor may get wet all over! Joe Milligan, chairman of the Recreation Board, hereby challenges Mayor Ken Fearnley and his council to a tug-of-war on July 8 at the Recreation grounds. The losing team will be lined up against an arena wall and drenched by the winners using the fire truck hose. This challenge is the "Wet Event" of the senior baseball tournament and beer gardens weekend, July 7 and 8.

HORSESHOE TOURNEY

Time to start reviving those old horseshoe skills. A horseshoe tournament is also scheduled for the senior baseball tournament weekend.

JACKPOT

The jackpot has not been won and is now $220 in 56 numbers. The bonanza was shared by Helen Robertson and Ruby Schneider. Free admissions for next Sunday went to Mmes. Madge, Bon Accord, Durk, Gibbons and Nimchuk, Egremont. Bingo is played Sundays at 7:30 p.m. in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

PARISH PICNIC

Anglicans will hold their parish picnic at the Bon Accord arena on Sunday, June 17 with a joint service at 11 a.m. You are cordially invited to pack a picnic lunch and join in the fun and games. Coffee and kool-aid will be supplied.

SENIORS LOOK FOR HANDYMAN

At a recent meeting held with June Berman from the Sturgeon Health Unit at the Jewel Box, seniors suggested that if the services of a handyman who could come in to do odd jobs on an hourly basis were available it would simplify a lot of problems for themselves. June has scouted around and found someone willing to take on the job. If you are interested in more information, call June at 459-6671 between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

FARMERS' MARKET

The next Farmers' Market will be held on Saturday, June 16 from noon to 4 p.m. at the Redwater Legion Hall. Featured this month will be Nellie's pyrogies, Pat's variety house plants, Mrs. Abel's honey, and Helen's petit point pictures and jewellery. Also included will be baked goods, handicrafts, and ceramics, and a few surprises as well.

The Tofield Greenhouse will also be there, with an excellent selection of plants. Lunch and coffee will be available and a door prize will be given away. Mrs. Evasiw says to watch for freshly-picked B.C. fruit coming around the end of June or early July. The B.C. Fruit Growers will provide fruit tables at the market for the first time this year.

There is something for everyone at the Farmers' Market. See you next Saturday!

TENNIS NEWS

An organizational meeting of the Redwater Tennis Club proved most successful on May 31, 1979. The meeting of some former members and of the new managed to Elect a New President, Connie Wuzinski, replacing the former president of last year, who stepped into a new role of head coach, Dan Pierce. Our congratulations to both.

Paul Koyich however retained his former position of secretary treasurer, having taken over late in the season last tennis season, and with a little quick talk from the former president to that effect.

We are pleased to be able to offer tennis lessons this year, head coach to instruct same, as he has just come back to us having completed a rigorous workout to become a qualified tennis instructor.

Anyone interested in registering to play or for lessons contact the following: Paul Koyich ph. 735-3547, Connie Wuzinski ph. 735-4239, Dan Pierce ph. 735-4403.

Fees are $10 for registration, and $20 for lessons (four, 1-hour lessons to be held in group form on separate nights so as not to interfere with regular scheduled tennis times. At present, tennis is scheduled indoors at the Multiplex on Tuesday and Thursday between 7 and 10 p.m., and on Sunday between 12 and 6 p.m. with all hours subject to participation.

It is hoped through the town's present approval for outdoor courts located south of the swimming pool that a more than enthusiastic turnout and membership will insure their constant use and make it a worthwhile endeavour for all those who made it possible and especially for all of us who want to use the facilities that are provided.

POT LUCK SUPPER

Don't forget the family pot luck supper Thursday, June 14 at 6 p.m. at the Redwater United Church. Everyone is welcome.

Bon Accord Art Club sets course

A painting course has been arranged for the fall of 1979. Instruction will be from the Department of Extension, University of Alberta. The course, which will begin some time in September, will run for 10 weeks before Christmas and will be geared to new and advanced members. Teaching will be concentrated on new members; senior members will be working independently most of the time.

Ten people have expressed an interest in joining the class this fall and more would be welcome. An organizational meeting is planned for mid-August. An exact date will be advertised at a later date. Thanks to all those who expressed their interest by responding to the questionnaire.

PUBSUPPER A WINNER

If you missed the English Pub supper and dance sponsored by the Ambulance Society you missed a really super meal and an altogether enjoyable evening. On behalf of the service a sincere thank you is extended to all those who prepared the food, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, vegetables, and delicious trifle for dessert, to members of the Golden Gems who washed up and to Brian Milligan (visiting from Ontario), Duane Hill, David Lesysen and Justin Bindon, who tended bar, and performed sundry other jobs during the evening, and to Rita Allen, who entertained with Irish Dancing. Dart champions were Bob Gray and Gene Gawreletz.

TIGERS GAME POSTPONED

Bon Accord Tigers had their league game against Waskatenau postponed due to inclement weather. However an exhibition game played on June 10 against Waskatenau was enjoyed by the crowd and saw Bon Accord come up winners. On Wednesday, June 20 they will host Barrhead Broncos and will play tournament ball at Morinville on June 23 and at Fort Saskatchewan this weekend.

Bon Accord Imperials will host Horse Hills #1 on Tuesday, June 19 and are playing tournament fastball at Chauvin this weekend.

BIKERS MAINTENANCE & FLOWER ARRANGING COURSES

You are reminded that the deadline for registering for the bicycle maintenance program, phone 939-4317, and the fresh flower arranging, phone 939-4317, is June 15. The bicycle maintenance course will be held in the Municipal District Warehouse on June 19 and 21 from 7 to 9 p.m. Participants must be nine years of age or older, and the course in flower arranging will take place in the MD of Sturgeon Building Warehouse on June 30 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

FISH & GAME

The Fish and Game Association will meet in the Bon Accord Community Centre on Tuesday, June 19 at 7:30 p.m. The Fish Derby at Shining Bank Lake is coming up on June 23 and 24.

HANCOCK OFFSPRING MAKES INDIA PAPERS

The following excerpt is from a Calcutta, India, newspaper: "Prof. G. H. Forbes, a distinguished scholar and writer of the United States has been selected for the coveted Rabindra Award for her book, 'Positivism in Bengal', the education minister, Mr. Shambu Ghosh, said here yesterday."

Dr. Forbes (nee Geraldine Hancock), is a professor at the State University of New York at Oswego College of Arts and Science. She is the daughter of Hazel and the late Ed Hancock. Mrs. Hancock has just returned from a month long visit with Gerry, who resides in Syracuse, N.Y. Together they enjoyed travelling through New York State, to New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Niagara Falls.

MY NEIGHBORS WANTED ME TO DO THIS . . . but I think I would have said something anyway.

I was next door on Saturday at a small going-away barbecue. We moved into the rumpus room when it started getting cooler, and as usual, with a pile of sports nuts in the small gathering, the talk turned to the upcoming football season.

Then the talk turned to the past seasons, and the ones that I don't remember but others (who may be slightly older than I) do.

My neighbor, Brent Rees (the one who is moving to Calgary) started pulling out newspapers that dated back to the late fifties and the early sixties. Then the neighbor across the street, Mike McNeil, ran back to his house to grab some of his "oldie-almost moldy" Grey Cup editions. You know the ones . . . the Eskimos were enjoying great fame and fortune with three Grey Cups in a row . . . sort of spine tingling all this old stuff.

I don't remember any of this . . . I know what people have said about the great years when the Eskimos were "king of the heap," but reading these newspaper accounts of the victories was an experience in itself.

I had to laugh at an old program that had a picture of Bryan Hall, then a sportscaster with CHED radio. Hall was a very young man at the time, and he wore one of those gangster-type hats in this particular picture. I suppose I should stress the "young" of the previous sentence . . . Bryan Hall looked like he had just fallen out of his crib. Yes, he was very young at the time. Very interesting indeed.

One Vancouver paper had about four pages of Grey Cup pictures . . . Rollie Miles, Johnny Bright, Normie Kwong, Don Getty (remember him?) and Jackie Parker. All of a sudden, these men, who were just words of the past to me, began running around in the paper, scoring their touchdowns, intercepting passes, running around the ends.

That's what's nice about sports . . . the present is exciting, and the past is . . . beautiful. It was nice to reminisce, even though I wasn't there.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION WAS MADE IN RED DEER on the weekend. It concerns the state of minor hockey in a way.

The Alberta Amateur Hockey Association approved and passed a resolution banning the use of bodychecks in minor hockey, from peewee down. A two minute penalty will result if a bodycheck is thrown.

This rule is significant in the future of hockey in this country.

Can you remember back to January of this past winter, when the visiting Soviet National Hockey team defeated the best the NHL could muster? If you were, or are, the type of person who can analyse why the Soviets proved to the world they are the champs, what did you come up with?

Perhaps could it be the fact that the Russians are better passers than we?

Perhaps could it be the fact that the Russians are better skaters than we?

Perhaps it is a combination of the above . . . which is most likely.

The decision by the AAHA to ban bodychecking in peewee and lower groups will enable hockey coaches to concentrate on these areas . . . areas that are lacking as far as many people are concerned.

Good move, AAHA! It worked in Quebec, so it should work here.

AT LAST . . . AT LONG LAST. Member teams of the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association will finally get to try out the new Meadowview ball diamonds later this week. The diamonds will see first action with the Rainmaker Invitational Fastball Tournament, which is being held in conjunction with the Rainmaker Rodeo. The tourney starts Friday evening, featuring sixteen teams, four of them from the local GSAMFA circuit.

Regular season play for the GSAMFA will continue, but all games are now at Meadowview, beginning Monday night.

According to a usually reliable source, the sod that was laid at the diamonds a few weeks ago has taken root quite well, and all systems are go!

That's why it's time to say . . . "At last, at long last." Have fun guys.

SPEAKING OF FACILITIES . . . have you seen the work that Standard General Construction has done so far on the new track and field venue on Sir Winston Churchill Avenue? Take a look . . . it's looking like a track now.

The curbing is done, the retaining wall is in, the track is almost completely level, and some long jump pits are in, even the sand!

Fastball tourney this weekend

The first annual St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo Rainmakers 16-team fastball tournament will be played this weekend on the new facilities at Meadowview ball park, providing the weatherman cooperates as some last minute diamond grooming still has to be completed.

Tournament organizer Gary Mix has some of the top men's fastball teams in the country entered and the Alberta entered. The teams will be vying for $2,000 in prize money with $1,000 going to the winner.

Two games will be played Friday at 7 p.m., involving the four local based St. Albert teams with L.B.H. Builders taking on St. Albert Nu-West A's while the pre-mentioned game will see the Territorial Juniors and Ottocrats in the other.

Saturday morning's action gets underway at 9 a.m. with Devon meeting Edmonton Runners World, while Calahoo Chiefs and Lee's Restaurant play on the other

Reid takes over full time G.M. post

The St. Albert Junior Saints hockey club announced recently that veteran hockey man Jack Reid would be the full time general manager of hockey operations for the coming season.

Saints' president Ted Lotocki, coach Doug Messier and Reid attended the annual Alberta Amateur Hockey Association meetings in Red Deer over the weekend with the emphasis towards the junior hockey division.

The Alberta Junior Hockey League could have two new entries by the June 22nd deadline with both Drumheller and Lloydminster joining last year's clubs of St. Albert, Fort Saskatchewan, Calgary Chinooks, Calgary Canucks, Sherwood Park, Taber and Red Deer.

Both clubs are expected to make it official by that date. Saints are hoping to open their training camp September 8th at Akinsdale Arena with a number of last year's players back in uniform.

Troy Murray, Brian Shaw, Breen Neeser, Pat Poulin,

Bernie Joyal, Mike Tascher, and all from St. Albert are expected to make the club.

Missing will be Mickey Volcan and Dean Dachyshyn who have both received scholarships from North Dakota State University; and Robbie Burns, who has been selected to play at the prestigious Harvard College. Other Saints are also in the process of accepting scholarships.

St. Albert bantam soccer team in Summer Games

The St. Albert bantam B soccer team, playing under the name "Whitecaps" in the local bantam house league, has won the right to represent Zone 5 in the Alberta Summer Games. The Games will be held in St. Albert August 2-6.

Six teams were involved in the round-robin tournament: Leduc, Rochester, Westlock, Sherwood Park, Ardrossan and St. Albert. The tourney was held on the weekend in Leduc.

The St. Albert Whitecaps played on the A side, and tied their first game with Rochester 0-0. They then played Leduc, clobbering them 11-0.

Sherwood Park won the B side, and played St. Albert for the honor of representing Zone 5. St. Albert came out on top 2-1.

Whitecaps coach Brian Silk told the Gazette he was "very proud of the way his team played and by their behaviour on the weekend." He added a word of thanks to the parents of the players who came out to Leduc to cheer the team on.

Two games were played in St. Albert on Monday, June 4 - the St. Albert Toros vs. South Edmonton, and the RMC Saints vs. Goldbar. The Toros came away with a 14 to 7 win over South Edmonton, in an action-packed game. Scoring for the Toros was Erin Oor with seven goals; Dave Kendall five goals - one assist; Tony Baller one goal - three assists; Lee Carter notched four assists; Stacy Dall one goal - one assist and Dave Cole and Stan Romaniuk each got one assist.

In the RMC Saints vs. Goldbar game, Goldbar came away with a 23 - 3 win over the Saints. Scoring for the Saints was Don Waters on a pass from Jack Liscombe. Jack Liscombe scored the other two goals, both unassisted.

The Toros then travelled to Enoch on Wednesday, June 6th - where they beat Enoch 12 - 2. Oor led the scoring with four goals; Tony Baller got two goals and three assists; Dave Kendall three goals - one assist; Chris Lane, Graham Thompson, and Rob Stanfield scored one goal each; and assists went to Stan Romaniuk, Georgie MacKenzie, Lee Carter and Doug Lissey.

The executive and parents of the St. Albert Lacrosse Association are busy with plans for the "Second Annual St. Albert Invitational Bantam Lacrosse Tournament" to be held here June 30 to July 2. Eight teams will be participating in the three-day tournament; and the winning team will be awarded the 'Jim McFall Memorial Trophy'. The teams participating are West Edmonton, South Edmonton, Biggar, Sask., Calgary, Fort McMurray, Whitecourt, RMC Saints and the St. Albert Toros. For those who plan on staying home for the July 1 weekend, there will be plenty of exciting Lacrosse action at the Akinsdale Arena. Do drop in!

There have been two game changes in the schedule which appeared in last week's Gazette. In the Novice division, the game scheduled for June 21 at Crestwood has been changed to Monday, June 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the Akinsdale Arena. In the bantam division, the RMC Saints' game scheduled for Thursday, June 28 has been changed to Monday, June 25 at 8:30 p.m. in the Akinsdale Arena.

Oilers weak along blueline

Edmonton Oilers, one of four new entries in the expanded National Hockey League, were hard hit in the recent N.H.L. drafting of previously owned W.H.A. players with the biggest problem coming along the blueline. The Oilers lost four top defencemen.

All four were picked up by N.H.L. clubs who had earlier drafted them, with captain Paul Shmyr going to Minnesota North Stars, Dave Langevin to the New York Islanders, Risto Siltanen to the lowly St. Louis Blues and John Hughes to the Canucks in Vancouver.

Al Hamilton, an original Oiler, and Joe Micheletti are the only defencemen left on the club and pickings will be slim for blueliners when the old N.H.L. clubs name their 17 man rosters.

Oilers may get Shmyr back if retired Bill Nyrop, formerly with the Montreal Canadiens, comes back with the North Stars as he is rumored to be thinking of.

In addition to the four defencemen, Edmonton also lost the services of Doug Berry to Colorado Rockies and goaltender Mike Liut to the St. Louis Blues.

Coach Glen Sather and General Manager Larry Gordon will be poring over the unprotected players Wednesday with the main concentration being on proven defencemen.

Oilers complete list of drafted players will be published next week.

LOOK HORSEY . . . THE FINISH LINE

This is what a winning pony chuckwagon driver looks like when he's about to cross the finish line in a race. It was one of the many exciting chuck races held Saturday and Sunday at the Kinsmen Rodeo grounds along with the world famous RCMP Musical Ride. Over 6,000 people turned out over the two days for the kick-off to Rodeo Week.

N.C.A.B.L. Update

By Mike Bargh

With nearly a third of the 1979 North Central Alberta Baseball League season completed, one word neatly sums up any 'playoff' aspirations of the Hugh Allen-coached Bon Accord Tigers: Bleak.

Tigers, third place finishers in the nine team NCABL junket last year, have posted a dismal 1-4 record to this writing. Coach Allen is nonetheless optimistic:

"I predict we'll be in one of the four playoff spots come August," but in doing so, he added, "we can't afford to lose another ball game."

An unenviable task, Hugh Allen. Offensively, Tigers have been somewhat anemic, except for a 19-5 drubbing of Alexander Braves.

One bright spot has been the mound. Allen is enthusiastic in his praise of pitchers Dean Lewis and Miles Langier: "Both of them are off to such great starts that I know we'll rebound and make the playoffs."

Meanwhile in Vimy, Bevin McNelly, half of the Blues' coaching tandem, was making even grander promises, mainly because his squad carries a sparkling 4-1 record into tonight's action.

"Yes, we'll make first place. Of course, I expect lots of competition from (last year's league pennant winning) Barrhead Broncos, Broncos and Westlock (Red Lions) will be the teams to beat."

The Vimy club, co-coached by Peter Provencal, finished out of the playoffs in 1978 with a credible 9-7-1 record. Since then, Blues have been strengthened by the addition of two players from the now-defunct Legal Pontiacs.

The extra help came in the form of outfielders Mike Gagne and Ray Dechamps. Both can hit, and Gagne, according to McNelly, is "the sort of batter that's in there when the chips are down."

Blues, always considered a strong hitting team, have been doubly blessed this season with the play of sophomore pitcher Maurice Fagnan. "He's just 21, but he's really come into his own," said McNelly.

Nothing is certain at this early point in the young NCABL season, only that competition has been close. Barrhead Broncos compiled a brilliant 15-2-1 record in 1978. Broncos were awarded the Molson Cup for their first place finish, but surprisingly, bowed out to Westlock Red Lions in the first round of the double knockout playoff competition.

Meanwhile, second place Rochester Royals and third place Bon Accord Tigers squared off in the other semi-final encounter, with the result an 11-8 victory in favor of Royals.

Westlock went on to hammer Rochester 14-4 in the 1978 final.

This season's only disappointment has been the play of Bon Accord Tigers to date. Even Alexander Braves 0-15-1 in their inaugural season in 1978, have been competitive this term.

"Braves have a heckuva coach in Norm Kootenay," said league commissioner Paul Riopel. "I think they'll start putting things together before long." (Braves are 1-5 at this writing).

The biggest change in league format was the announcement by Riopel of a new playoff structure. In previous years, the NCABL went with a single day double knockout competition. "This year," says Riopel, "we're trying a two-day round robin tournament, which should increase fan support." Last year's final drew "about 600" fans in Barrhead.

Drillers humiliated by San Diego

The Edmonton Drillers were stung badly in San Diego to the tune of 4-0 on Sunday, following an equally embarrassing 6-1 defeat at the hands of the powerful Fort Lauderdale Strikers last Wednesday in North American Soccer League action.

In San Diego, extremely hot weather and two key players out of the line-up added to the Drillers woes in dropping the game.

Going into the game, the Drillers and the San Diego Sockers were tied for first place in the American Conference West division, with 47 points, but the Socker win gives them the full nine points in NASL rules. The Sockers now have 56 points.

Scoring for San Diego were Yilmaz Orhan with two, Julie Veece and Leonardo Cuellar.

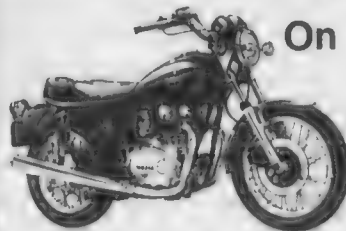

The Drillers are at home for the next two games, hosting the Barrhead Timbers tonight and the San Diego Sockers on Saturday, both games at Commonwealth Stadium.

Alberta Games in motion

No in-law jokes allowed when it comes to the Alberta Games' Kin: all 2,000 of them. The Kin are Alberta's Kinsmen, and their involvement with the Summer Games in St. Albert means two things: organization and communication.

Last October, at the suggestion of the Alberta Games Council, Kinsmen in Alberta (District 4) pledged to use their organizing and communicating skills to promote the Games for a one year trial period.

"Kinsmen have always been involved in fund raising and writing," says Duncan Gillespie, District 4 Executive Secretary. "When the Council approached us, we were looking for an opportunity to become involved in a province-wide activity at the grass-roots level where we could contribute through service work, not service dollars."

The philosophy and goals of the Games Council, applied province-wide, appeal to Kinsmen. Both organizations act on the belief that programs for becoming physically fit should be easily accessible, not only for athletes or children, but for everyone.

Traditionally, Kinsmen have been associated with projects like cystic fibrosis research funding and aid to handicapped children. In smaller communities, there is a Kinsmen park, swimming pool or arena as proof that their motto 'Serving the Community's Greatest Need' is more than just a noble sentiment.

A recent national project has been the building of Participarks, where an after-dinner stroll can be combined with exercises at stations set up along a jogging trail. The 50th of these parks will be opening in Calgary's Glenmore Park this month.

Involvement like this to involvement in the Alberta

Games is only a short step. For the '79 Summer Games, Kinsmen will host Team Pentathlon playoffs in many of the eight zones. They may also hold pre-Games banquets where athletes can get to know their team mates before competing in St. Albert.

"Right now Kinsmen are fully supporting the Games, and are just waiting to be involved in more ways," says Gillespie.

Since the Kinsmen arrived on the scene they have been eager to do more. Future plans could see them as an ongoing Games' representative at the zone level. Polish up the silver (and the gold and bronze), the Kin are moving in!

In the Olympics, the pentathlon event includes riding, fencing, pistol-shooting, swimming and cross-country running. Since the Alberta Games are geared toward weekend as well as trained athletes, Team Pentathlon includes the more widely-played activities of golf, horseshoes, ball throw, running and swimming.

For the golf event, each player may carry only three clubs (not interchangeable between team members) to play the three holes. In the ball throw, each player has two chances to throw a regulation softball the greatest distance possible within marked boundaries. The running event will be a 4 x 100 m relay, following the usual regulations for relays. The horseshoes, each player will throw 10 shoes in a 30 foot playing area, following rules as stated by the Canadian National Horseshoe Player Association. The swimming event is also a relay, 4 x 25 m, in accordance with the usual rules, except that flotation aids will be permitted (get out the water wings!)

For this Alberta Class event, teams are made up of four adults (20 years and older as of August 2, 1979) at least one of whom must be female.

Team Pentathlon will take place August 4 at four venues: Fountain Park (swimming), St. Albert Track (ball throw and running), Senior Citizens Recreation Centre (horseshoes) and Sturgeon Golf Course (golf).

Check out your neighborhood or office for possible team mates, and contact your local Kinsmen club for entry details.

St. Albertans can get involved

Games playoffs in full swing

The Alberta Summer Games are closer than most people realize. Zone playoffs have already taken place in skeet shooting and bantam soccer. Team pentathlon was to have its zone playoff on June 9 but no entries were received. However, we still can enter host teams. Team pentathlon consists of golf, ball throw, 4 x 100m running, relay, horseshoe pitching and a 4 x 25m swimming relay. All you need is four individuals with at least one being female all of whom are 20 as of August 2, 1979. Individuals are urged to contact Murray Steeves at 892-3071 or myself Vernon Sinnott at 459-6601. This is a new and exciting event, as well as an opportunity to represent St. Albert.

We have the opportunity to enter host teams or athletes in place of zones with no representatives.

As the host community we desire to make the games a success. To fulfil that desire we must participate as competitors. The major emphasis in the games is one of participation. Your high calibre athletes are not the competitors.

Tennis has its preliminary playoff for St. Albert, Fort Saskatchewan and Athabasca areas in St. Albert on June 16 followed by zone playoffs June 17 also in St. Albert. To register contact Lloyd Scherer at 458-4643 by June 14. Tennis consists of singles, doubles and mixed doubles events for ages 13 - 15, 18 and under, 19 and over. There is a senior mixed doubles for those 41 and over.

The Western Equestrian zone playoff is scheduled for June 17 in Namao. Anyone who is interested can contact Jack Capstick at 973-3571 for additional details. English and Dressage Equestrian zone playoff is also scheduled for this Saturday in St. Albert. For further details contact Gene Johnner at 973-6429.

Summer fishing derby

The St. Albert Fish and Game Association is sponsoring a summer fishing derby on June 30, July 1 and 2 at the Brazeau Reservoir, located south on Highway 57 through Drayton Valley, then west to the reservoir.

The Derby will end Monday at 6 p.m. Participants entering the fishing derby are required to pre-register at the campsite. Fees will be $2 per person or $5 per family. Non-members as well as members are welcome to go out and try their luck.

Prizes will be awarded daily to the largest fish caught of each species, plus prizes and trophies on the overall derby.

"An honest tale speeds best being plainly told."

MISSION CONTROL . . . WE HAVE LIFT-OFF

The sport of pony chuckwagons is not easy, and it sure can get rough at times. Once in a while a wagon fails to negotiate a turn, as was the case on Sunday at the Kinsmen Rodeo grounds. The driver of this flipped wagon was okay after the accident, and from what we could tell, the excited horses made it through the ordeal.

Interclub tennis teams doing well

The St. Albert Tennis Club has eight teams entered in the Edmonton District Interclub league: one A team, three B teams, three C teams and one D team - and all teams have been doing quite well in their respective leagues.

The A team, composed of Dave and Steve Kirk, Peter Miller, Lloyd Scherer, Betty Ontkane, Cynthia Sage and Judy Wood, has the following record: tied Mayfield 4-4, defeated Garneau 7-1 and 5-3, defeated Hillcrest 7-1.

The B1 team composed of Bob, Kevin and Ashley Sage, Dale Rurka, Bonnie Childs, Marg Bagby, Sally Toft, Mhairi Pender has the following record: defeated Spruce Grove 7-1, defeated Hillcrest 5-3, tied Broadmoor 4-4, defeated Allendale 6-2.

The B2 team composed of Bruce Childs, Ron Riley and Frank Carnahan, Angela Miller, Barb Chan, Marg O'Donnell has the following record: defeated St. Albert 3 by 5-3, defeated Parkview 7-1, and tied Glenora 4-4.

The B3 team composed of Derm Begley, Dave Rudge, Malcolm Salisbury, Lorne Wood, Jeanette Titus, Doreen Golden, Anne Kirk has the following record: lost to St. A 2 by 3-5, lost to Glenora 3-5, defeated Parkview 6-2, tied Capilano 4-4.

The C1 team composed of Fred Resler, Dan McCaffery, Bob Heyworth, Barry Richardson, Shelagh Kennedy, Mel-Sheng Shanks, Jeanette Kary, Charma Ramer has the following record: tied Broadmoor 4-4, lost to Capilano 5-3, lost to Derrick 5-3, tied Allendale 4-4.

The C2 team composed of Joe Lehman, Ken Heathfield, Blair Henderson and Dave Hartt, Marg O'Donnell, Gerry Bloemhof, Maureen Pillman has the following record: defeated Garneau 6-2, defeated Fort Sask. 7-1, tied Spruce Grove 4-4, defeated St. Albert 3 by 6-2.

The C3 team composed of Adrian Kennedy, Ken Sharp, Charlie Bond, Brad Smith, Anne Kennedy, Bev Lambeth, Kathy Lawrence has the following record: defeated Mayfield 8-0, defeated Glenora 5-3, lost to St. Albert 2 by 6-2.

The D team composed of Don and Linda Thompson, Brian and Carrie Fritsch, Brian White, Gary Morton, Mary Heathfield, and Norma Begley has won their first game over Rio Terrace 8-0.

Other club members who may be interested in playing interclub are reminded that all they need do is challenge and defeat a player on an existing team and they will replace them. Interclub players will be receiving their schedule for the remainder of the season within a week and one schedule will be posted in the clubhouse.

SUMMER GAMES TENNIS TRIALS

Entry deadline is today (Wednesday, June 13) - entry forms available at the clubhouse. The trials are on Saturday, June 16 and Sunday, June 17. Phone Lloyd Scherer at 458-4643 for information.

BUICK CHALLENGE MIXED DOUBLES

Buick (General Motors) is sponsoring a national mixed doubles competition for recreational players over age 18. There will be local playdowns during July and August, followed by district and regional playoffs. Provincially ranked players are ineligible. The entry deadline is Sunday, June 17. Entry forms are available at the Mission Clubhouse. The "grand" prize for the national winners is a trip for four to Wimbledon, and there are various prizes for local and district winners as well so any players who think they might be interested should pick up a form at the clubhouse.

TENNIS OFFICIALS CLINIC

There will be an officials clinic conducted by Frank Oliver at the Mission courts on Monday, June 25 from 7-10 p.m. This clinic is primarily aimed at all those persons who have volunteered to assist with the tennis for the Alberta Summer Games - so they are asked to mark this date on their calendar. The clinic is open to any interested club members however and is free - so please feel free to come if you are able - we have a need for more players to be more knowledgeable about tennis officiating for all levels of tournaments.

St. Albert High wins high school tennis tournament

For the first time in several years St. Albert High has won back the St. Albert Tennis Club trophy for winning the interschool tournament last Friday.

St. Albert High made a clean sweep taking first, second and third in both the boys and girls competition. Girls singles winners were: 1. Sonja Jenkner; 2. Sylvia Theissen; 3. Shelagh Kennedy. The Paul Kane girls were: Dorothy Kirk, Lynn Kutzner, Heather McAfee, Alison Prowse. The St. Albert High boys winners were 1. Troy Shelemey; 2. Eric Sadee; 3. Jesus Almeda. The boys from Paul Kane were: Mark Hoffman, Kent Dietrichs, Mike Schubert.

AN EASY OUT

Miles Spencer of the Territorial Juniors fastball team doesn't quite make it to second base as the ball arrives at the glove of this RCMP Musical Ride player. The Juniors and the visiting Musical Ride members played an exhibition game on Monday night. The locals topped the visitors 17-0.

CCTV challenges Gazette Grizzlies

St. Albert's Capital Cable TV studio has challenged the hot Gazette Grizzlies to a softball match.

The Grizzlies, still savouring their sweet victory over the CKST Sneakers last week, graciously accepted the challenge.

The game has been set for Sunday, June 24, at 2 p.m. at the St. Albert High Diamond, unless a little pull might get us into Meadowview Diamonds.

USC work continues

"So much accomplished - so much still needed." These words were contained in a letter written to USC headquarters at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa. The USC is embarking on its 35th year of service alleviating human despair and misery to some of the most unfortunate in developing countries. USC headquarters is located at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa.

Juniors blank RCMP squad

Members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride fastball team must have felt a little like General Custer did a few years back as they were bombed 17-0 by the St. Albert Territorial Juniors in an exhibition fastball game Monday night at SAM school.

Winning pitcher Mike Mitchell went the first four innings, allowing only one single by short-stop Dave Cunningham. Mitchell struck out nine of 14 batters. Blaine Galbraith came in on relief for the balance of the game and did not allow a hit while striking out three.

Garth Oberkirsch was the losing pitcher, allowing 10 hits in five innings, one of which was a two-run triple in the second inning by Mitchell and one a home run by Earl Evaniew.

Rick Cameron came in to relieve Oberkirsch in the fifth inning and gave up three hits and four runs while his defence committed some costly errors.

Juniors' big inning came in the fourth when 13 batters went to the plate and scored eight runs on five hits.

Juniors will take part in this weekend's St. Albert Kinsmen Rainmakers fastball tournament and will play the Ottocrats at 7 p.m. Friday on the new diamonds in Meadowview ball park.

Juniors are also "holding their own" in Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball League play with five wins and one loss and are in second spot behind the league leading L.B.H. Builders, who are unbeaten in seven games.

Sailfish Swim Club needs more swimmers

The St. Albert Sailfish Swim Club would like to retain its number one position among the summer swim clubs of Alberta.

The club is currently short of 13 and 14 year old swimmers, as well as eight and under swimmers.

The 13 and 14 group should be able to comfortably swim four lengths of a 25 metre pool, while the eight and unders should be able to handle a one length swim.

If you are interested in swimming in one of the best, if not best, clubs in Alberta, call Mrs. Ann Hayden at 458-2540, or be at the Fountain Park Pool at 3:45 from Monday to Friday.

Invitational sailing regatta

The Wabamun Sailing Club is holding an Invitational Regatta on June 23 and 24 at Wabamun Lake.

The club, which is situated about one mile west of the Wabamun power plant, expects about 50 to 60 sailing boats of different classes to participate. Six races are planned for the regatta.

A skippers meeting will be held at 10 a.m. on the morning of Saturday, June 23, and one will be held on Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The first races will start about half an hour after the skippers meetings.

TRACK TAKING SHAPE

Standard General Construction has been busy with the new Summer Games track and field facility on Sir Winston Churchill Avenue. The hot weather of late has helped the time schedule, and from the photo above, it's becoming more and more apparent that the track will be ready soon. (Even the long jump pits are almost finished). The track will be under the spotlight of the Alberta Summer Games, which will be held in St. Albert August 2 - 6.

St. Albert Junior Tennis Camp Horseback Riding & Swimming For Intermediate and Novice Juniors On the Weekend of July 7 & 8

SATURDAY, JULY 7

9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Tennis Instruction
10:30 - 12:00 Noon Horseback Riding
12:00 - 1:30 p.m. Lunch
1:30 - 3:00 p.m. Tennis Instruction

SUNDAY, JULY 8

Same format as Saturday except replace horseback riding with swimming.

COST: $20.00

REGISTRATION: Thursday, June 14, 7 to 9 p.m. and Friday, June 15, 7 to 9 p.m. Mission Clubhouse. Watch for further registration dates in the following paper.

For more information call Bill Osborne 458-8787.

St. Albert lifters dominate at Edmonton contest

Four members of the "Atlas Barbell Club" representing St. Albert walked away with two gold, one silver and one bronze medal at the Alberta Reclassification contest held May 26 at Eastglen High School. This meet was different from the usual format in that all competitors were compared on a pound for pound basis. The winners were decided by using the nationally accepted "Sinclair formula" devised by Dr. Roy Sinclair, professor of mathematics at the University of Alberta. The formula can compare a lifter that weighs 220 pounds to one who weighs 120 pounds and decide who is the better weightlifter. Normally, all lifters compete in various weight classes and the one who lifts the most is declared the winner.

In this meet all lifters were divided into classifications of either novice, class 4, class 3, class 2, class 1, or master depending on how much they lift in relation to their bodyweight. The more one lifts without increasing his bodyweight the higher the classification.

Lifting in the novice division, Ron Laird won a gold medal with lifts of 60 kilos (132 lbs.) in the snatch and 85 kilos (187 lbs.) in the clean and jerk. Laird attempted 143 pounds in the snatch and 198 pounds in the jerk but these were unsuccessful. Taking the silver medal was Mike Henry of the Atlas Club. Henry snatched 65 kilos (143 lbs.) and clean and jerked 90 kilos (198 lbs.) to total 155 kilos. The snatch and total were new St. Albert records for the middleweight class. Although Henry lifted more than Laird, Laird's bodyweight was sufficiently lower than Henry's to allow Laird to win the novice division.

Representing St. Albert in the Class 3 category was Kevin McKinstry who came through with a bronze medal against some tough competition from older and more experienced Edmonton lifters. McKinstry managed 60 kilos in the snatch and 90 in the jerk to total 150 kilos. Two misses in the snatch with 65 kilos and 70 kilos and one in the clean and jerk with 92.5 kilos (203 lbs.) cost him the title.

In Class 3, Max Baier, the Atlas coach, narrowly defeated Kevin Galbraith of the Grierson club for the gold medal. Baier snatched 90 kilos and jerked 120 kilos (264 lbs.) for the victory. Baier attempted 92.5 kilos in the snatch and 125 kilos (275 lbs.) in the jerk but those weights got the better of him this time. Baier's clean and jerk and total were new St. Albert records.

In all, 29 lifters from the Edmonton area competed. The next meet for the Atlas club will be July 1 in Tofield.

Meadowview to see first action Friday

The much talked about and much worked on Meadowview Diamonds will finally hear the crack of a bat against a ball on Friday with the Rainmaker Invitational Fastball Tournament.

Gene Lytwyn of the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association, told the Gazette that an official opening was to have been held on Friday, but due to time limitations there won't be one till later in the month.

The GSAMFA will start playing league games at the two diamond Meadowview facility on Monday. Games in the league take place Monday through Thursday. The league has been playing their games so far at Akinsdale, Sir Alexander Mackenzie and Namao.

Willowbrook Rangers in first

St. Albert's Willowbrook Rangers midget soccer team has claimed first place in the Edmonton Minor Soccer Association's Midget League.

The Rangers won a game by default when the team from Oliver community failed to show.

On Monday night, Montrose tied the Rangers 2-2, the first time the Rangers haven't won a game. The Rangers ended the season with five wins and one tie.

Scoring for St. Albert in the game against Montrose was Corey O'Neill with a pair. Corey was also named the "player of the game."

The Rangers will now await tonight's other games in the league to determine who they will play in playoff action. The St. Albert team will play the third place team on June 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Sir John Thompson School in Edmonton.

Two members of St. Albert's Atlas Barbell club won gold medals recently in an Edmonton weightlifting meet. Max Baier, above, won a gold by lifting 90 kilos in the snatch and 120 kilos in the clean and jerk. His total and clean and jerk are new St. Albert records. Below, Ron Laird won his gold with a 60 kilo snatch and 85 kilo clean and jerk performance.

Samba Bat Time Stories

as told by Uncle Rick

This week - SAMBA's baseball dance - huge success ... Mosquito division boasts three undefeated leaders ... Beaver house leaguers await first round elimination play ... Bantam's Nu-West Homers soar into lead but look out for Reds ... crucial games face St. Albert Cardinals in Norwest Midget League.

And now the details ...

AFTER THE BALL WAS OVER DEPARTMENT

Samba's big social event of the season (next to the playoffs) was the baseball dance of last Friday at the Community Hall.

Happy people won many prizes and the highlight, of course, was the presentation of a cheque for $1,000 in the form of a baseball - completely negotiable - from the lovely ladies of SAMBA to the SAMBA organization. Presenter was outgoing Ladies Auxiliary President Carol Baird and acceptor (with thanks) was President Lorne Ross of SAMBA.

Many dignitaries were in attendance including representatives from the St. Albert Branch of the Canadian Legion, who are helping SAMBA upgrade diamonds, getting new facilities and the like. We were glad to have them as our guests.

Great sounds and refreshments completed the fulfilled, well-organized evening.

Even fastball devotees like Norm Spencer, couldn't stay away from the fun and frolic ...

"A" DIVISION

	W	L	P
Melton's M-M	2	0	4
LP Red Roosters	1	1	2
Safeway Seals	1	1	2
Belmont Bombers	0	2	0

"B" DIVISION

Buxton Beavers	2	0	4
St. Albert Royals	1	1	2
St. Albert Rangers	1	1	2
Graham Giants	0	2	0

"C" DIVISION

Mohawk Braves	2	0	4
Nu West Homers	1	1	2

Melton's Mighty-Mites, Buxton's Beavers and Mohawk's Braves are the undefeated squads in Mosquito A, B and C division standings as Samba baseball house league actions enters the final two weeks of play.

Close encounters of many kinds was the rule rather than the exception this past week.

The Mighty-Mites of Melton's oversold the Lacombe Park Red Rooster 4-2 in a Monday skirmish. However, the barnyard bullies recovered to barely skin the Safeway Seals 9-8, Wednesday in "A" play.

Curt Goesen pitched his heart out for his Ranger nine this week as the Lawmen put the Royals behind bars 19-18. Goesen faced 16 batters in five innings and registered 15 strike-outs ... quite a performance for the young "B" division chucker.

Nu-West Homers had a bit of trouble with Sturgeon's Meat Merchants before wrapping up a tasty 16-14 slice as "C" division teams continue their second half playdowns.

BEAVERS BATTLE IN CLOSE CONTESTS

BEAVER "A" DIVISION

	W	L	P
Crown Well Drillers	3	2	6
The Bucket	2	2	4
Sod Busters	2	2	4
Sportshop Cubs	2	3	4

As luck would have it, we've only heard the two success stories of the Sturgeon Valley Sod Busters thanks to Dave Ackerman, the Busters' foreman and coach.

As always, good pitching by Rick Owen and Casey Wheatley and a round tripper by heavy hitting Todd Carnelly was all the Sod-Busters needed to bury the Crown Well Drillers 14-9 in a minor upset last week.

Again, Carnelly was "The Sultan of Swat," hammering a pair of homeruns along with Owen's duo of four baggers aided the Sod Buster cause as they treed the St. Albert Sportshop Cubs 19-11. Steady twirling by Wheatley and Owen was a big factor, also.

BEAVER "B" DIVISION

	W	L	P
Miss. Ridge Dodgers	3	1	6
Neil's Trailer Kings	3	1	6
Grandin Mallers	3	2	6
Springer Angels	1	4	2
Nu-West Homers	1	4	2

We haven't heard "a bean" from the coaches of the Beaver "Bees" this past week. However, if the standings are any indication, we're sure they've got more to do than worry about the testy trivia found in our strange column.

For example, hardworking Vic Hogan, division over-seer, has announced his first round eliminations start tonight in the Beaver "B" bracket with the team finishing in runner-up pitted against the fifth placer. Team placing sixth will move against the third place finisher at the newest Beaver diamond - Alpine - off Akinsdale.

St. Albert High's diamond will see the #2 - #5 contest tonight.

Tomorrow evening the league's first place contender battles the fourth positioned team at Lorne Akin's busy diamond.

BANTAM DIVISION'S FOUR-POINTER LOSSES BLAST PENNINGTON'S INTO 3rd

BANTAM DIVISION (standings as of June 11)

	W	L	P
Nu-West Homers	1	1	3
Ass. Dry Wall Reds	10	2	20
Pennington Blasters	8	5	16
Touch Inn Tigers	8	6	16
Neil's Trailer Kings	3	1	6
Link Hardware

It only took two games for the former league leading Pennington Blasters to drop from first to a poor third position in bantam house league games - in less than eight days.

A gentleman's agreement between coaches Colin Tooth of the Blasters and Jack Hartley of the Reds resulted in a four point gainer for the Drywallers earlier last week knocking themselves into the league's top spot 7-5.

Coach Mike Wells Sr. of the Touch Inn Tigers obviously heard about the arrangement and offered Coach Tooth the same "deal." Once again, the Blasters faltered and lost 6-4 to the not-to-be denied Tigers - the win brought the Jungle Cats to within a loss of Pennington's. The Tigers, with an important tangle with Nu-West tonight, are tied for third with the Dynamite gang.

Another "four-pointer" make up match was slated for last night, Associated Dry Wall Reds and Link's Blue Jays - nothing on that one, yet.

1979 NORWEST MIDGET DIVISION

	W	L	P
SP Co's	11	2	22
Barr. Kings	10	1	20
St. Albert Saints	8	4	16
St. Albert Cards	7	5	14
Rochester Padres	7	6	14
Linaria Aces	4	8	8
West. IGA Tigers	2	10	4
Onoway	0	13	0

Coach Peter Selisny and his high scoring bunch of baseball players came to St. Albert tonight riding the crest of a five game winning streak which began after May 29. This same "bunch" of ballplayers, the Spruce Grove Co's, will no doubt be mighty hungry for victory.

Their last affair with the Cardinals ended in a 7-1 flailing from the Cards - a most humiliating loss and one Mr. Selisny and company haven't forgotten. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Mission Park.

The Grove-Co's have been rather devastating the past several weeks. A double win, 9-4 and 25-4 from Westlock, a single 30-0 no-mercy killing of outclassed but undaunted Onoway's Bears and last Sunday, the Grove-Co's gobbled up Linaria's Aces 15-1 in the first part of a twin-bill and had tougher going in the nitecap to win only 5-3.

St. Albert's spirited Saints tuned up for tomorrow night's conflict against Barrhead's Country Kings by outscoring the visiting Westlock Tigers 9-4 and 11-6. Gerry Gleason won the opener and Terry Yost the closer. Coach Norm Heemeryck sent four members of his great pitching corp into the afternoon action.

Losing game #12 and #13 was the fate of Onoway's "Bad News" Bears on Sunday. According to Louise Harper, the Bears were in both tussles until a fielding error "broke the ice" and that would signal the start of a series of mistakes that made the difference of a close win or a "far out loss". anyway, the scores were 19-9 and 20-9 both in favor of the Rochester Padres, breathing hard on the Cardinals bony heels.

Rochester also turned back the Stanley Steamers in a Farmers' Day get-together Friday afternoon 12-0. The second scheduled set-to was cancelled because of a Rochester foul-up. Coach Wayne Stanley of St. Albert's third midget crew was still steaming about the whole situation.

St. Albert's Cardinals have been ideal since June 3 but will more than make up for it in the days to come. After tonight's struggle with Spruce Grove, they expect to enter a two-day midget tournament in Edmonton and will make up a game with the St. Albert Saints - a must-see conflict slated for Tuesday, June 19. The Saints will likewise be busy with a tourney next weekend, as well.

DUGOUT DIGGINGS DEPT.

Our award for the "most gutsy team" in the Norwest Midget League would have to be Coach Frank Harper's Onoway's Bears. Despite record of no wins and 13 defeats, Bears have shown up and played each and every game - not always to the best of their ability, but never have they given up. Congrats to Frank, Louise and the Bears.

Most improved bantam team we've seen is Mike Wells Sr. and his Touch Inn Tigers. They could surprise us in the coming playoffs.

Stanley's Steamers may not like their name-tag, they just haven't heard of one the just haven't heard of one of the world's most famous automobiles, that's all.

If you think "Diamonds have been a baseball player's best friend" to date - just wait until the playoffs start!

Aquadettes holding watershow

The Edmonton Aquadettes Synchronized Swim Club will be holding their annual watershow at Vic Composite Pool (on Kingsway Ave.) on three nights, June 13, 14 and 15. The show will start at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are available at the door, $2 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under. There will be no admission for pre-schoolers.

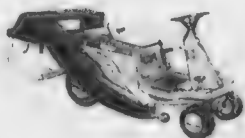

Many of these swimmers will be participating in the National Championships, as the Aquadettes Club is the number one synchronized swim club in northern Alberta.

Morinville summer spiel off to good start

By Margaret Yacyshen

The Morinville fourth annual summer spiel is on again. Last Monday 32 ladies rinks began the competition in great style.

In one very close game, former Alberta champion Shirley Tucker of Spruce Grove defeated last year's bonspiel winner Faye Redden, also of Spruce Grove. Tucker will now advance to the "A" section semi-finals.

The first flight of the 64-rink men's draw started Thursday. Pre-bonspiel favorites Jack Isaaman, Roger Comeau and Doug Johnston curled true to form with Jack Isaaman finally emerging the first flight winner. He came from behind to defeat Doug Johnston 10-6 after nine ends of play. In the second event Roy Jones of Athabasca prevailed to win 5-4 over Hank Muirhead of St. Albert.

The third event saw last year's bonspiel champion Darwin Daviduk upset 7-4 by local curler Tom Flynn.

This week's action sees the ladies semi-finals tonight and second flight men's competition beginning Thursday night. Games should be interesting in this flight as teams include Paul Devlin and Hec Gervais. Ladies and men's finals go Sunday evening.

Bowman to Sabres

SCOTTY BOWMAN

Scotty Bowman, coach of five Stanley Cup winners with the Montreal Canadiens, and the last four in a row, has changed uniforms for the coming season as the new general manager of hockey operations for the struggling Buffalo Sabres.

Buffaloes gain will certainly be a tremendous loss for the Canadiens as Bowman was highly regarded as a hockey coach and administrator during his 26 years in the Montreal organization.

Bowman had gone as high as he could with the red, white and blue and made his feelings known, as he wanted to step into the general manager's position with the Canadiens, who apparently felt otherwise.

Other coaching changes in the N.H.L. during the past few days has seen Al McNeil leave the Canadiens farm club in Nova Scotia for the head job in Atlanta while Don Cherry is now head man at Colorado after leaving the Boston Bruins.

N.H.L. hockey meetings are being held this week in Montreal and by the time they are completed a great number of players will be changing teams.

In terms of necessity

A lady from Calgary likes to think of her donation to the USC of Canada in terms of providing food or necessities to destitute children ... "I enclose my 'small' donation, but when I think of it as 500 cups of milk or some other necessity for those in need, I feel it helps." USC headquarters is located at 56 Sparks Street, Ottawa.

POWER HITTER

Y.M.C.A. camping underway

Challenge the great outdoors and enjoy! An exciting summer awaits Albertans who participate in a Wilderness Camping or Canoeing program offered by the Y.M.C.A. of Edmonton.

This year we have many new programs for fun and adventure in outdoor living.

The Pioneer program is an exciting 10 day introduction to Wilderness living for 12 - 15 year olds. They will have a tent base camp on the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains from where they will go hiking, canoeing and orienteering.

The Voyageur program is an intensive, challenging experience combining the wilderness setting of Alberta's rivers with the old tradition of travel by canoe. Designed for 14 - 17 year old men and women, they will train to learn the skills essential for lake and river travel.

Cycle and tent through the beautiful Jasper, Banff, Yoho and Kootenay National Parks with our Teen Cycle program. Ten days of touring and sightseeing are in store for 13 - 17 year olds.

The exciting one day Northwest Company back packing expedition into the Rockies for 14 - 17 year olds is their opportunity to enjoy the majestic scenery and hike the trails of our fore-fathers.

Our new Counsellor-in-Training program provides 14 - 17 year olds with outdoor living and leadership skills in the role of assistant leader at Camp Metawewak, a day camp for 6 - 13 year olds.

Adults: Learn what back packing is all about. Participate with friends in our seven day Adult Back Packing program and make this your first step into an exciting life in the Canadian Rockies.

Or, travel the quiet waterways of the Peace River with your entire family on our Adult and Family Canoe Trip. Good old fashioned family fun with a floating kitchen.

There are also weekend River and Canoe Camping expeditions to tantalize your outdoor thirst.

The YMCA would welcome any questions regarding any of these outdoor experiences. For further information and brochures, please contact Joy Tanner, program supervisor, at the Outdoor Education and Camping Unit, 452-8340 or write:

"Starship" attending balloon championships

"Starship Zodiak" will be one of the 50 balloons flying the skies over Grande Prairie, Alberta this summer. Pilot Stan Finberg from Campbell, California will be competing in the Canadian Hot Air Ballooning Championships July 29 to August 6.

Mr. Finberg, a California realtor, has been a balloonist since 1970, and owns three balloons. "Starship Zodiak" a black balloon festooned with the 12 astrological signs, cost over $20,000. It has appeared throughout the United States on various promotions and several television movies, one starring William Shatner of the "Star Trek" series.

Captain Zodiak (alias Mr. Finberg) is 46 years old, is married with two teenage children and states that "Ballooning is really a sport of togetherness. The whole family enjoys chasing balloons."

Forty-eight pilots from across Canada as well as Ireland, Sweden, and England will join with "Starship Zodiak" at the Canadian Championships this summer.

Juveniles come close

Despite the fact the St. Albert juvenile soccer team, Knobloch Rebels, haven't won a game yet this year, they came close this past week.

The Rebels lost a squeaker 2-1 to Northeast Rebels on Sunday, with Steve Parker scoring the lone St. Albert goal.

Last Tuesday, the Rebels were beaten 6-2 at the hands of North West United, with Parker scoring both goals for the locals.

Good weather means more drivers on the road and more people travelling further away from home.

Inevitably, some of these drivers -- maybe even you -- are going to have flat tires.

Changing a flat is easy, if it's done with a degree of caution. But change it in the wrong way, or in the wrong place, and you could be in a lot of trouble.

THE BIG RULE

If a tire goes flat when you're driving, never stamp on the brakes and try to stop the car quickly. You'll only lose control. Instead, ease off the gas, move toward the side of the road, and gently bring the car to a halt.

Always make sure your car is far enough off to the side of the road so you can work on it without being exposed to the danger of passing cars. Try and pick a level spot of ground to make the change on so your jack will have a firm resting place.

BEFORE YOU START

Before you even leave your car, make sure your transmission is in the "park" position (use "first" if you have a standard shift). Also apply the parking brake.

Climb out of the passenger side of the car (getting out on the driver's side next to a busy highway can be hazardous to your health) and remove your spare.

Place the spare next to the tire that has to be changed, so you can easily lift and mount it.

Remove the hub cap on the flat and loosen the lug nuts (the nuts that hold the tire on the wheel) about a half-turn.

JACKING

Always jack your car up according to the manufacturer's instructions. Make sure the base of the jack is on a firm, flat piece of ground. Otherwise, the wind created by a passing car could blow it over or cause the car to roll.

Raise the car just high enough to slip the new tire on. Loosen the lug nuts all the way, remove them, and place them in the hub cap so you don't lose any.

Pull the damaged tire off and immediately put on the spare. Spin the lug nuts back on, alternating sides of the wheel. Tighten them down by hand, then use your lug wrench or tire iron to tighten them about a half turn more.

Lower the car so that the wheel touches the ground, then tighten the nuts the rest of the way. Make sure you tighten all of them.

Put your hub cap back on by holding it in place along one edge, then rapping the opposite edge sharply with the heel of your hand.

Lower the jack the rest of the way, remove it, and place it with your spare in the trunk of your car.

REPAIR THE SPARE

Your first stop after any flat should be at a service station to check the air pressure of your spare tire. Most drivers do not keep them at the proper pressure. Use your own owner's manual as a guide when filling it.

Always have the flat tire repaired or replaced immediately. Getting caught with no spare is no joke.

Happy travelling!

House

By Jim Oliphant

DETAILS, DETAILS

You go into a sporting-goods store to buy a tent, and it's cash and carry. Give the man behind the counter the price of your "shelter" and he'll hand over your tent. That's it.

A house is shelter, too--but that's where the resemblance ends. There's so much paperwork that goes into the sale of a house; so much is involved

There's an earnest-money agreement for the purchaser, a contract of purchase, a binder, a certificate of title, a deed of trust, a special warranty deed. Someone has to deal with title insurance, documentary stamps, survey plots, mortgage commitments. Encroachments and encumbrances have to be considered. Escrow and liens, too.

It doesn't take a GENIUS to handle all these details; we make no such claims. But it stands to reason that someone who handles these details and these concepts regularly can do it more efficiently and is less likely to make a serious mistake.
